Game Modes

11 Event Heat

After the Character Select screen and World Record display screen, the first of the eleven events begins.

In this mode you compete in all the events. It is your responsibility as a decent hard working citizen to get as many points as possible.

Arcade Mode

Compete in the eight original arcade events over two days. In this mode, you need to do well enough in each event to qualify for the next.

If you flake out and don't make the qualifying event limit, the Continue screen appears. Press Start before the timer reaches zero to go for the gold again. The Arcade Mode Game Select screen appears when you choose to continue.

Individual Match

As with the other modes, the Character Select screen appears first. Select the event you want to practice from the Game Select screen. Press the D-Pad left or right to highlight the event, and press Button A or C to select. The Game Select screen appears each time you finish an event.

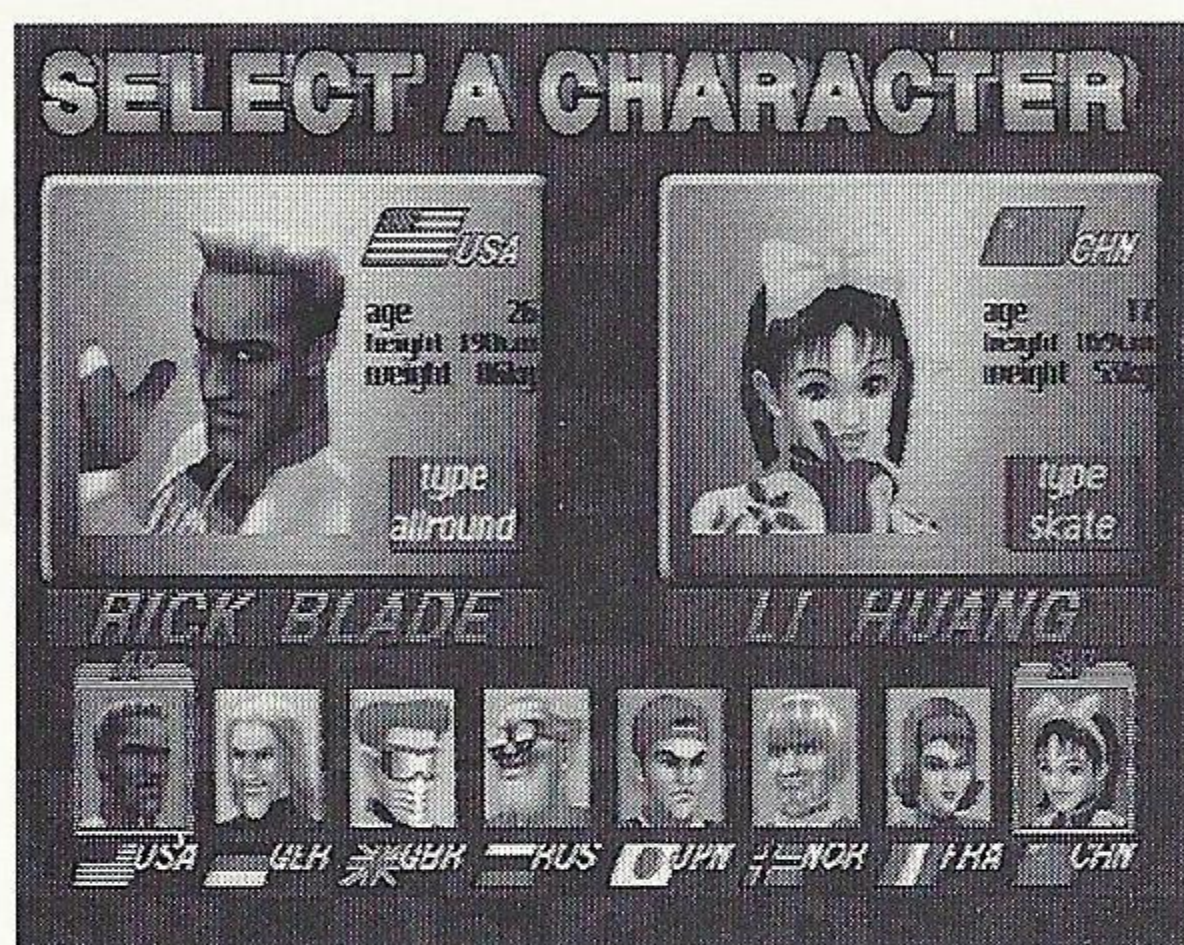

Custom Heat

Select your own favorite events to be included in this special competition. Press the D-Pad up or down to highlight an event you want to include, then press A or C to confirm. Select up to eight events, then select the green START lamp to begin the heat.

Character Select

Press the D-Pad left or right to highlight a character, and select by pressing Button A or C.

Name Entry

For outstanding performances, you are invited to enter your initials in the record books. You are asked to do so when:

- Your overall score for all of the events in the 11 Event Heat mode or Arcade mode is in the top five.
- Your score for one of the events in 11 Event Heat mode or Arcade mode is in the top five.

Press the D-Pad left or right to highlight a character, and press Button A or C to select. Highlight the arrow and press a Confirm Button to delete a character. When finished, highlight END and press Button A or C.

Note:

- The Name Entry screen appears only the first time you score in the top five. Your initials are added to the record books automatically should you score in the top five again.

Let The Games Begin!!

Speed Skiing

Once "GO" appears on the screen, press a SPEED Button as rapidly as possible to make your skier go as fast as possible. The D-Pad is not used in this event.

Ski Jumping

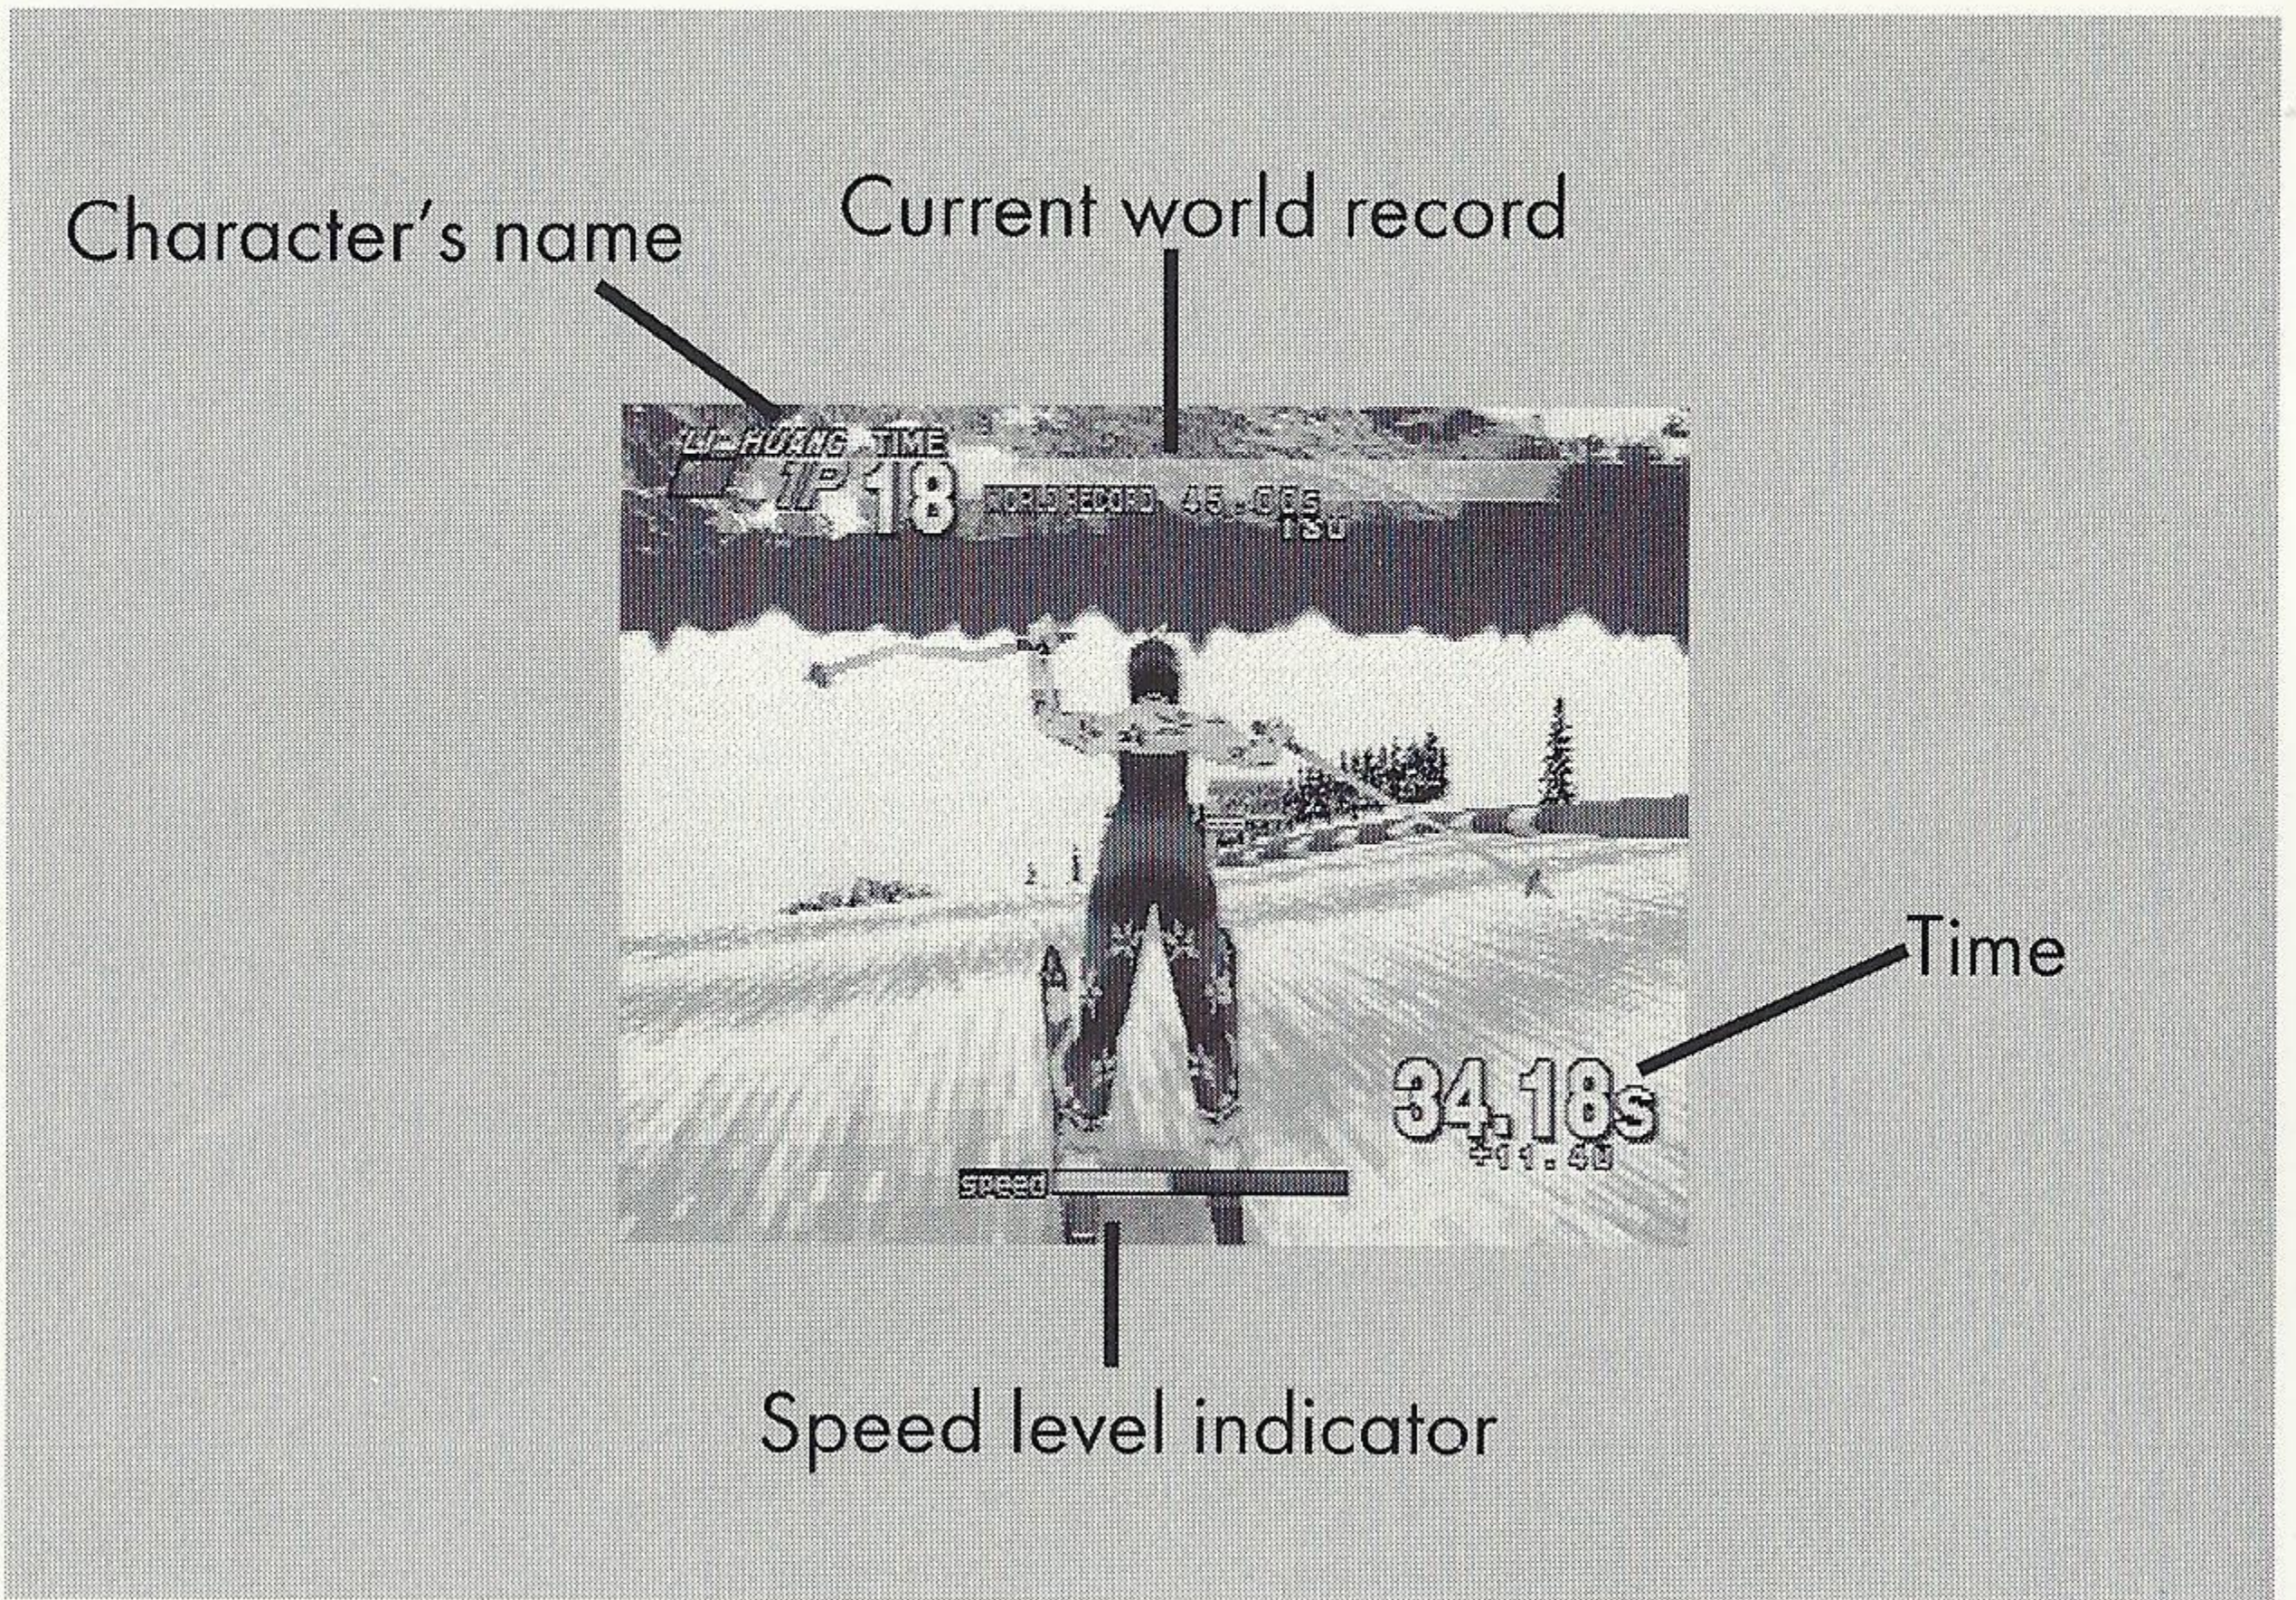

Press an SPEED Button to start your jumper's descent down the ski jump. Repeatedly press a SPEED Button as fast as possible to gain speed.

Just before the red line marking the end of the jump slope, press an ACTION Button to set the angle of the jump. The longer you hold the button, the steeper the angle becomes.

To ensure a smooth landing, press an ACTION Button when you think your character is about to touch down.

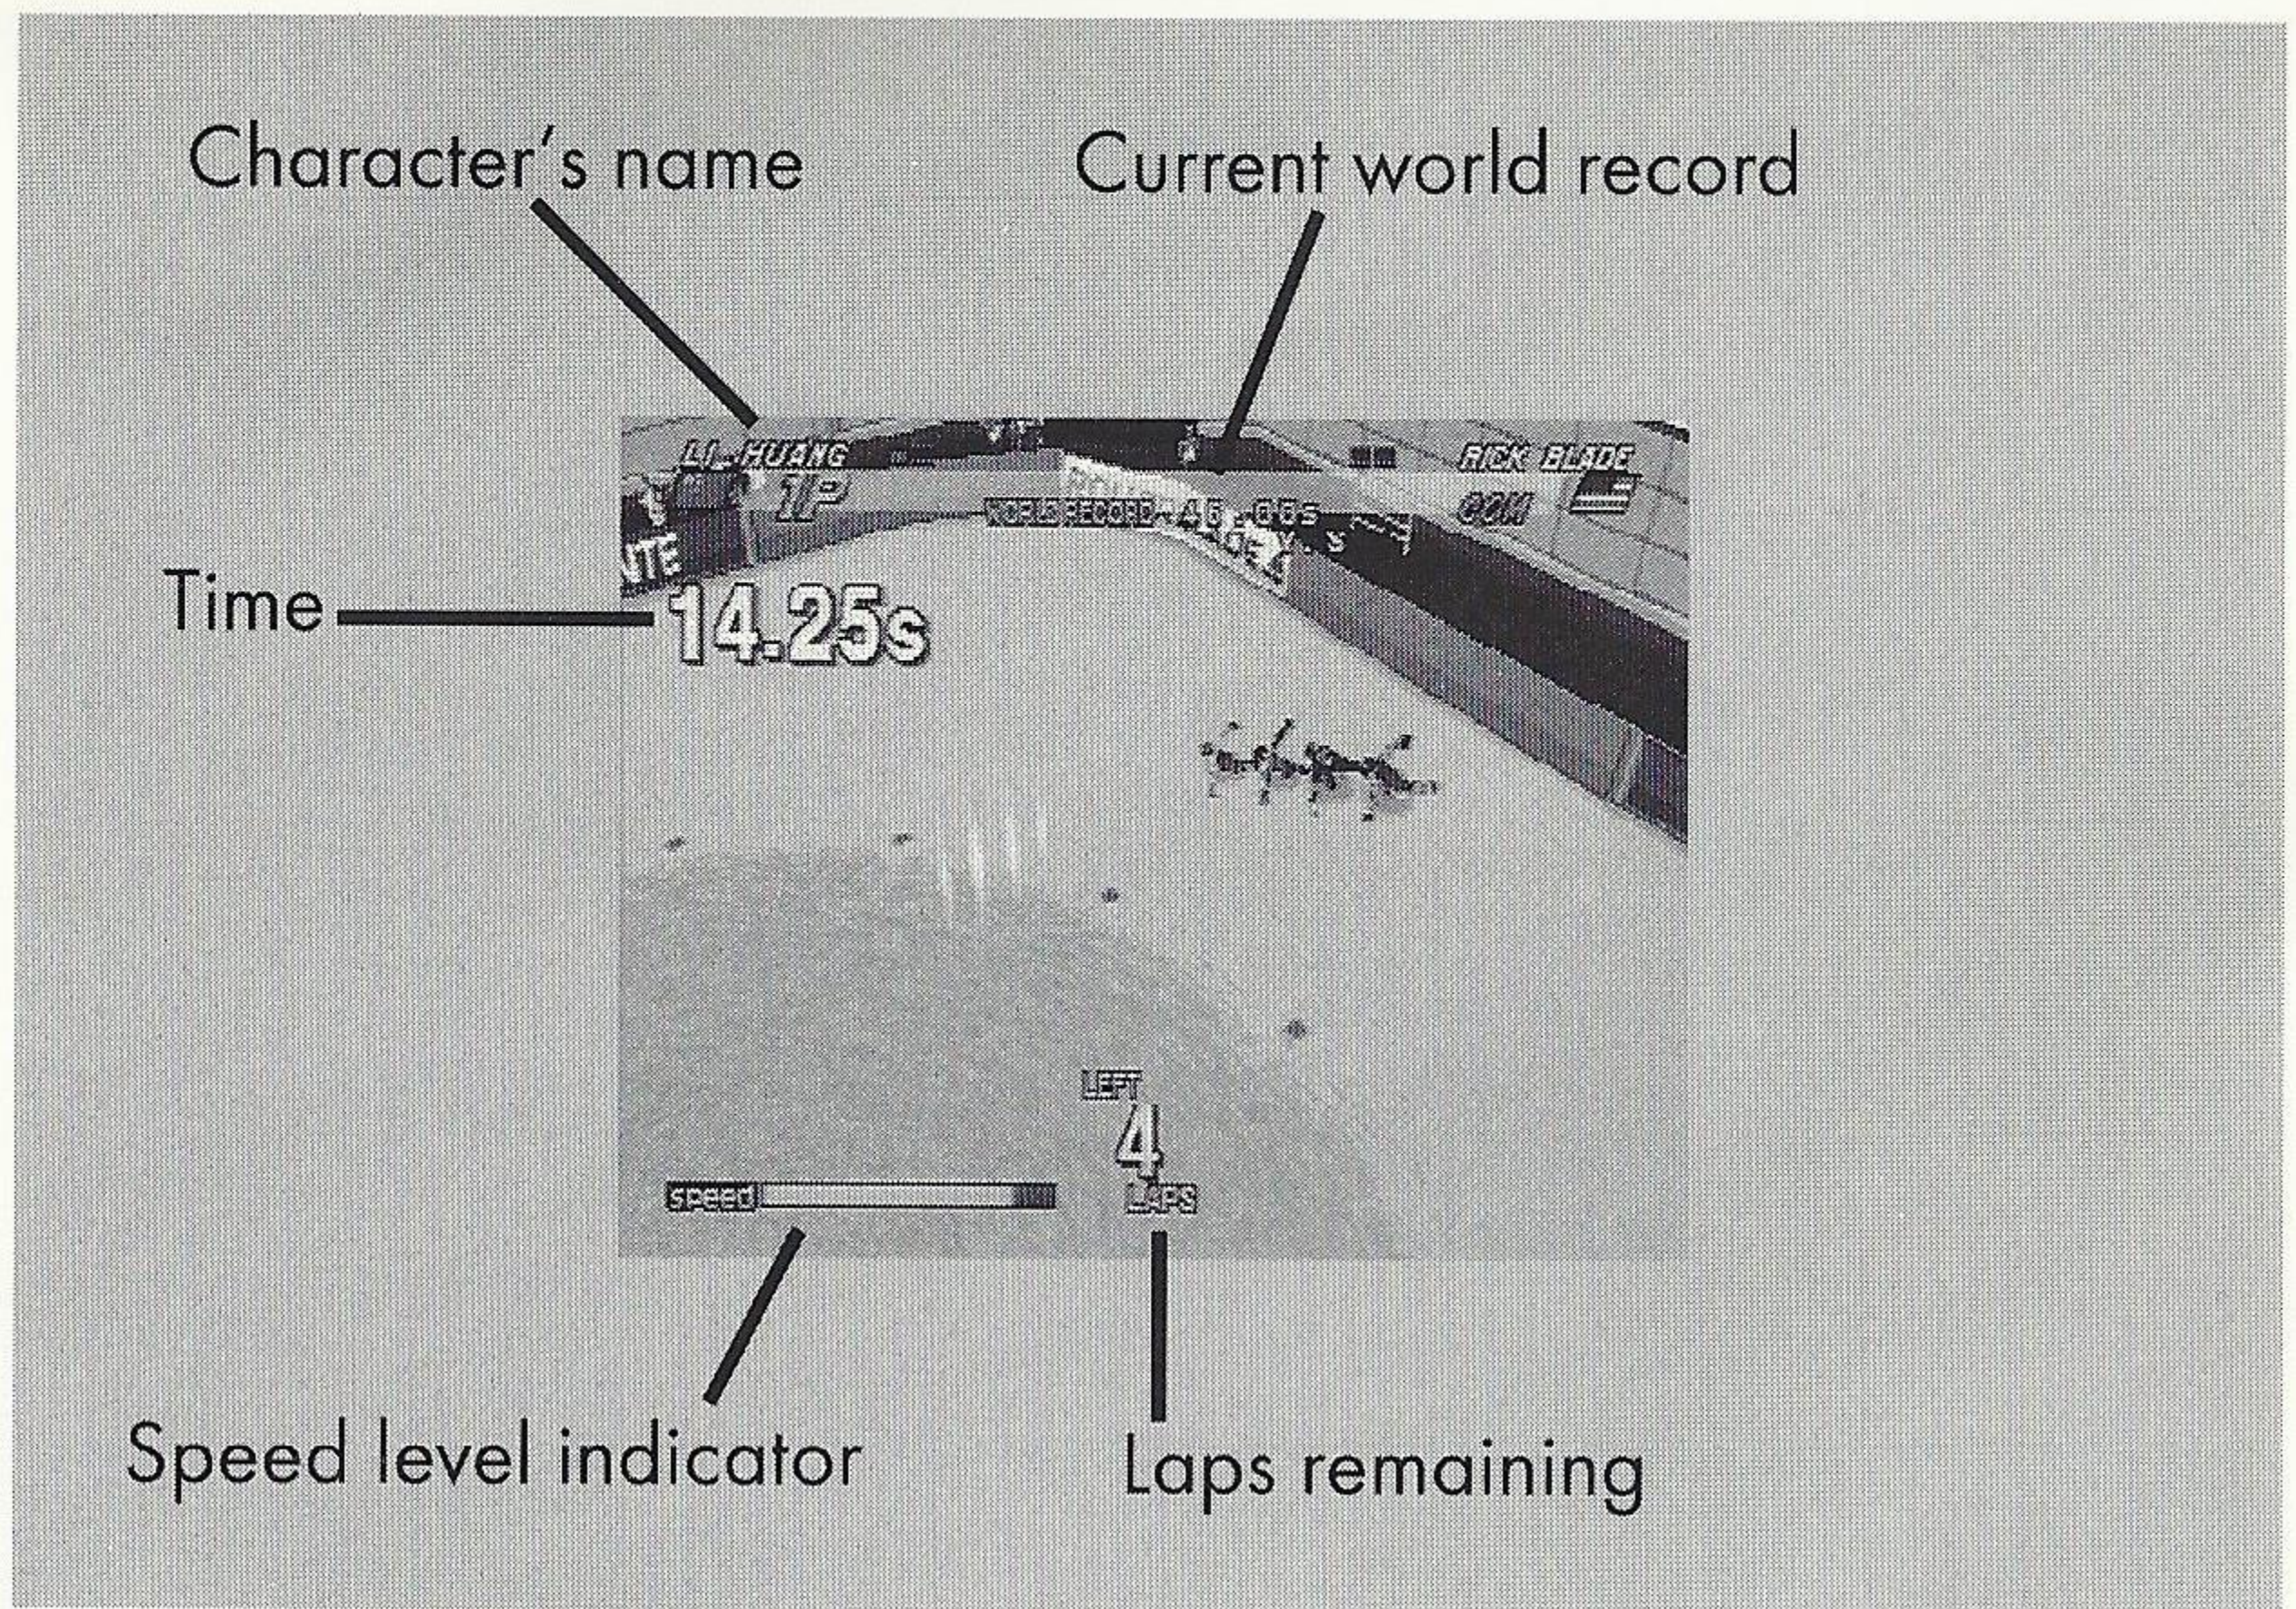

Downhill

Once "GO" appears on the screen, repeatedly press a SPEED Button for an initial push off. Once you've gained enough initial speed, stop pressing the SPEED Button and concentrate on steering through the course using the D-Pad.

There are a number of jumps in the course. A triangular warning sign appears to warn you of a jump ahead. To land successfully, press an ACTION Button before the edge of the jump (indicated by red stripes). Timing is of the essence.

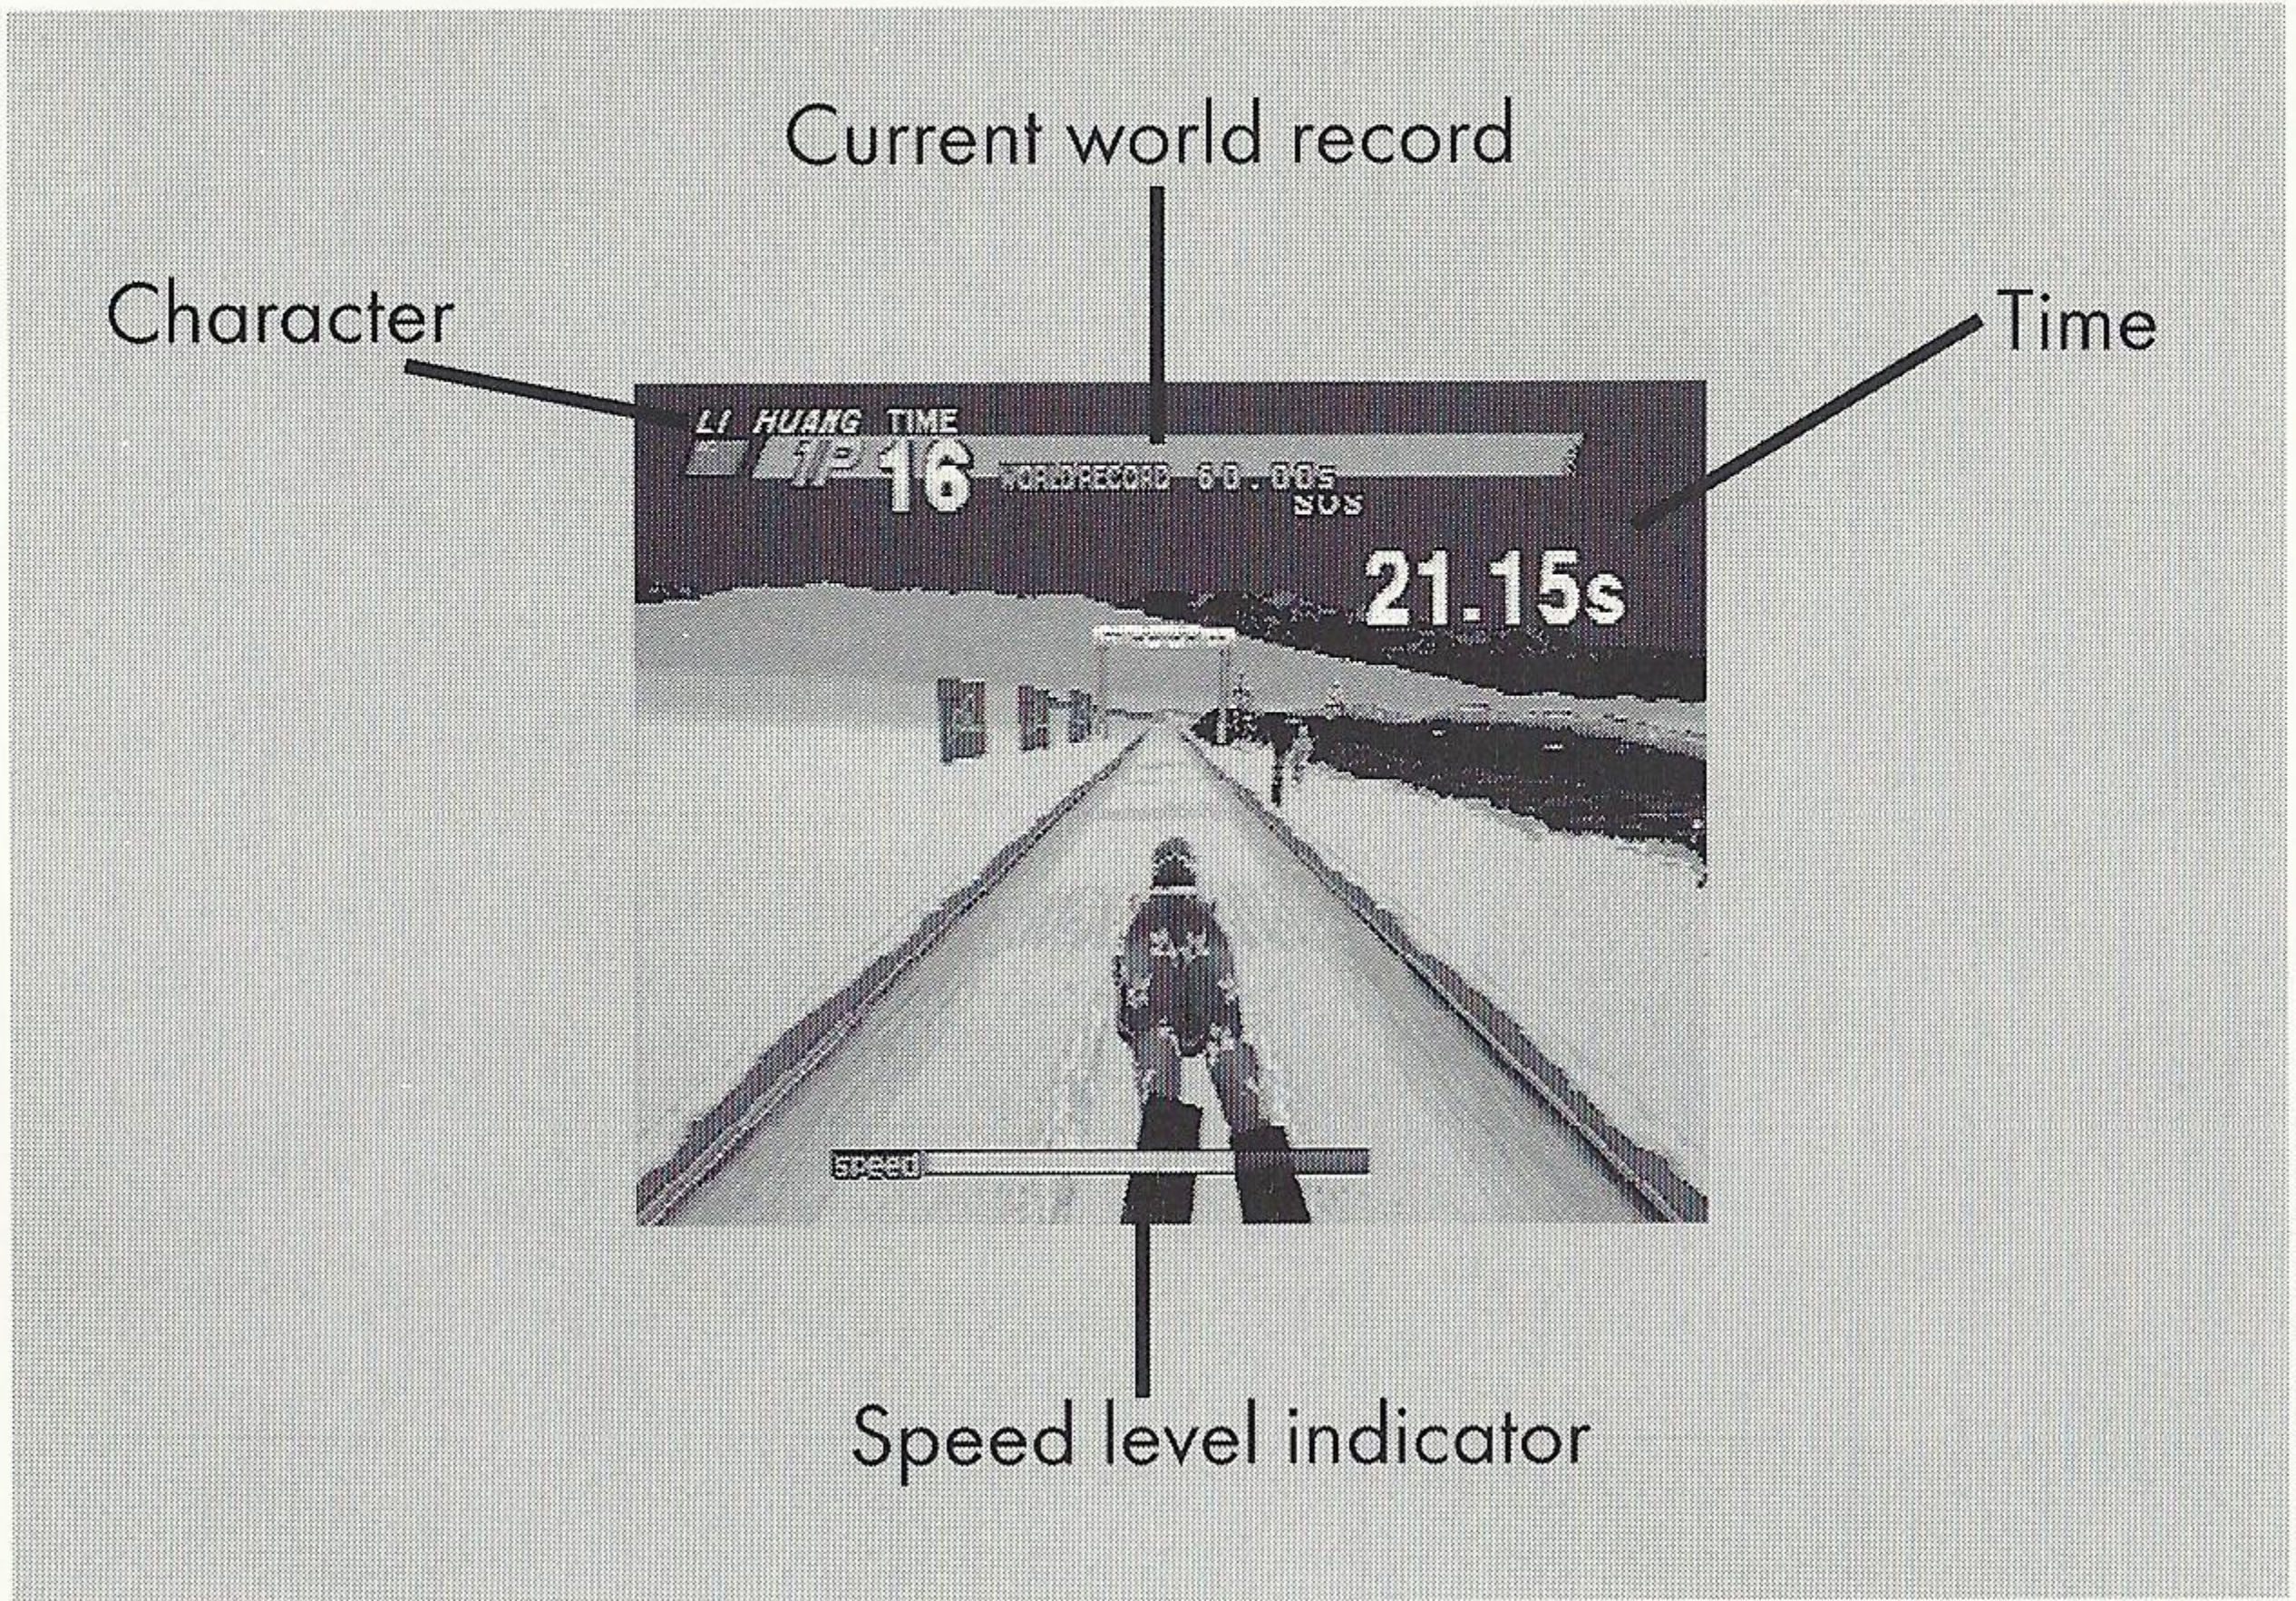

Short Track Speed Skating

This event requires speed, dexterity and a certain amount of cunning.

Once "GO" appears on the screen, press a SPEED Button rapidly to skate at speed. Press the D-Pad to maneuver your character through the field and pass the finish line first.

Skeleton

Once "GO" appears on the screen, you can start the push off. Repeatedly press a SPEED Button as fast as possible to gain a good initial speed. Press an ACTION Button to jump onto the sled. During the run, keep a smooth line around the corners by pressing the D-Pad to avoid hitting the sides. Also, during the run the ACTION button acts as the brake.

Slalom

Once "GO" appears on the screen, press a SPEED Button as rapidly as possible to gain speed.

In order to ski to the left or right of a pole, press an ACTION Button as you approach the pole – your skier will automatically adjust his or her stance to negotiate the pole as tightly as possible.

Timing is everything. If your timing is off slightly, your skier hits the pole awkwardly and is put off balance temporarily, thus losing valuable time.

Note: The D-Pad is not used in this event.

Aerial

Once "GO" appears on the screen, watch the Skill Level Indicator. Press an ACTION Button to stop the moving level scale at the jump skill level you wish to attempt. Now you have to gain a Speed/Power/Skill level to match that.

First, press a SPEED Button as rapidly as possible to gain enough speed for the jump. This will be indicated at the bottom in blue. At the start of the jump, press an ACTION Button and keep it pressed down to gain power (shown in green). Release the ACTION Button before the end of the jump ramp. Now, once in the air, press a SPEED Button to increase the level of aerial maneuver skill (shown in yellow).

If the final total Speed/Power/Skill level achieved matches or exceeds that required for the jump, the jump is completed successfully. The D-Pad is not used in this event.

Bobsleigh

Once "GO" appears on the screen, you can start the push off. Press a SPEED Button as fast as possible to gain a good initial speed. Press an ACTION Button to jump in the bobsleigh before you cross the red line.

During the run, keep a smooth line around the corners by pressing the D-Pad to avoid hitting the sides.

Speed Skating

Once "GO" appears on the screen, press a SPEED Button as rapidly as possible to get to full speed as quickly as possible.

This event is not just about speed, it's about speed control. Your current speed is indicated in the speed bar at the bottom of the screen.

The speed bar is divided into three zones. The blue area indicates slower speed, yellow indicates high speed and the red area indicates very high speed. On the straights, try to keep your skater skating at the red speed level, but on corners such high speed leads to less control and your skater may slip, so reduce the speed a little to get a perfect balance of speed and control.

Note: The D-Pad is not used in this event.

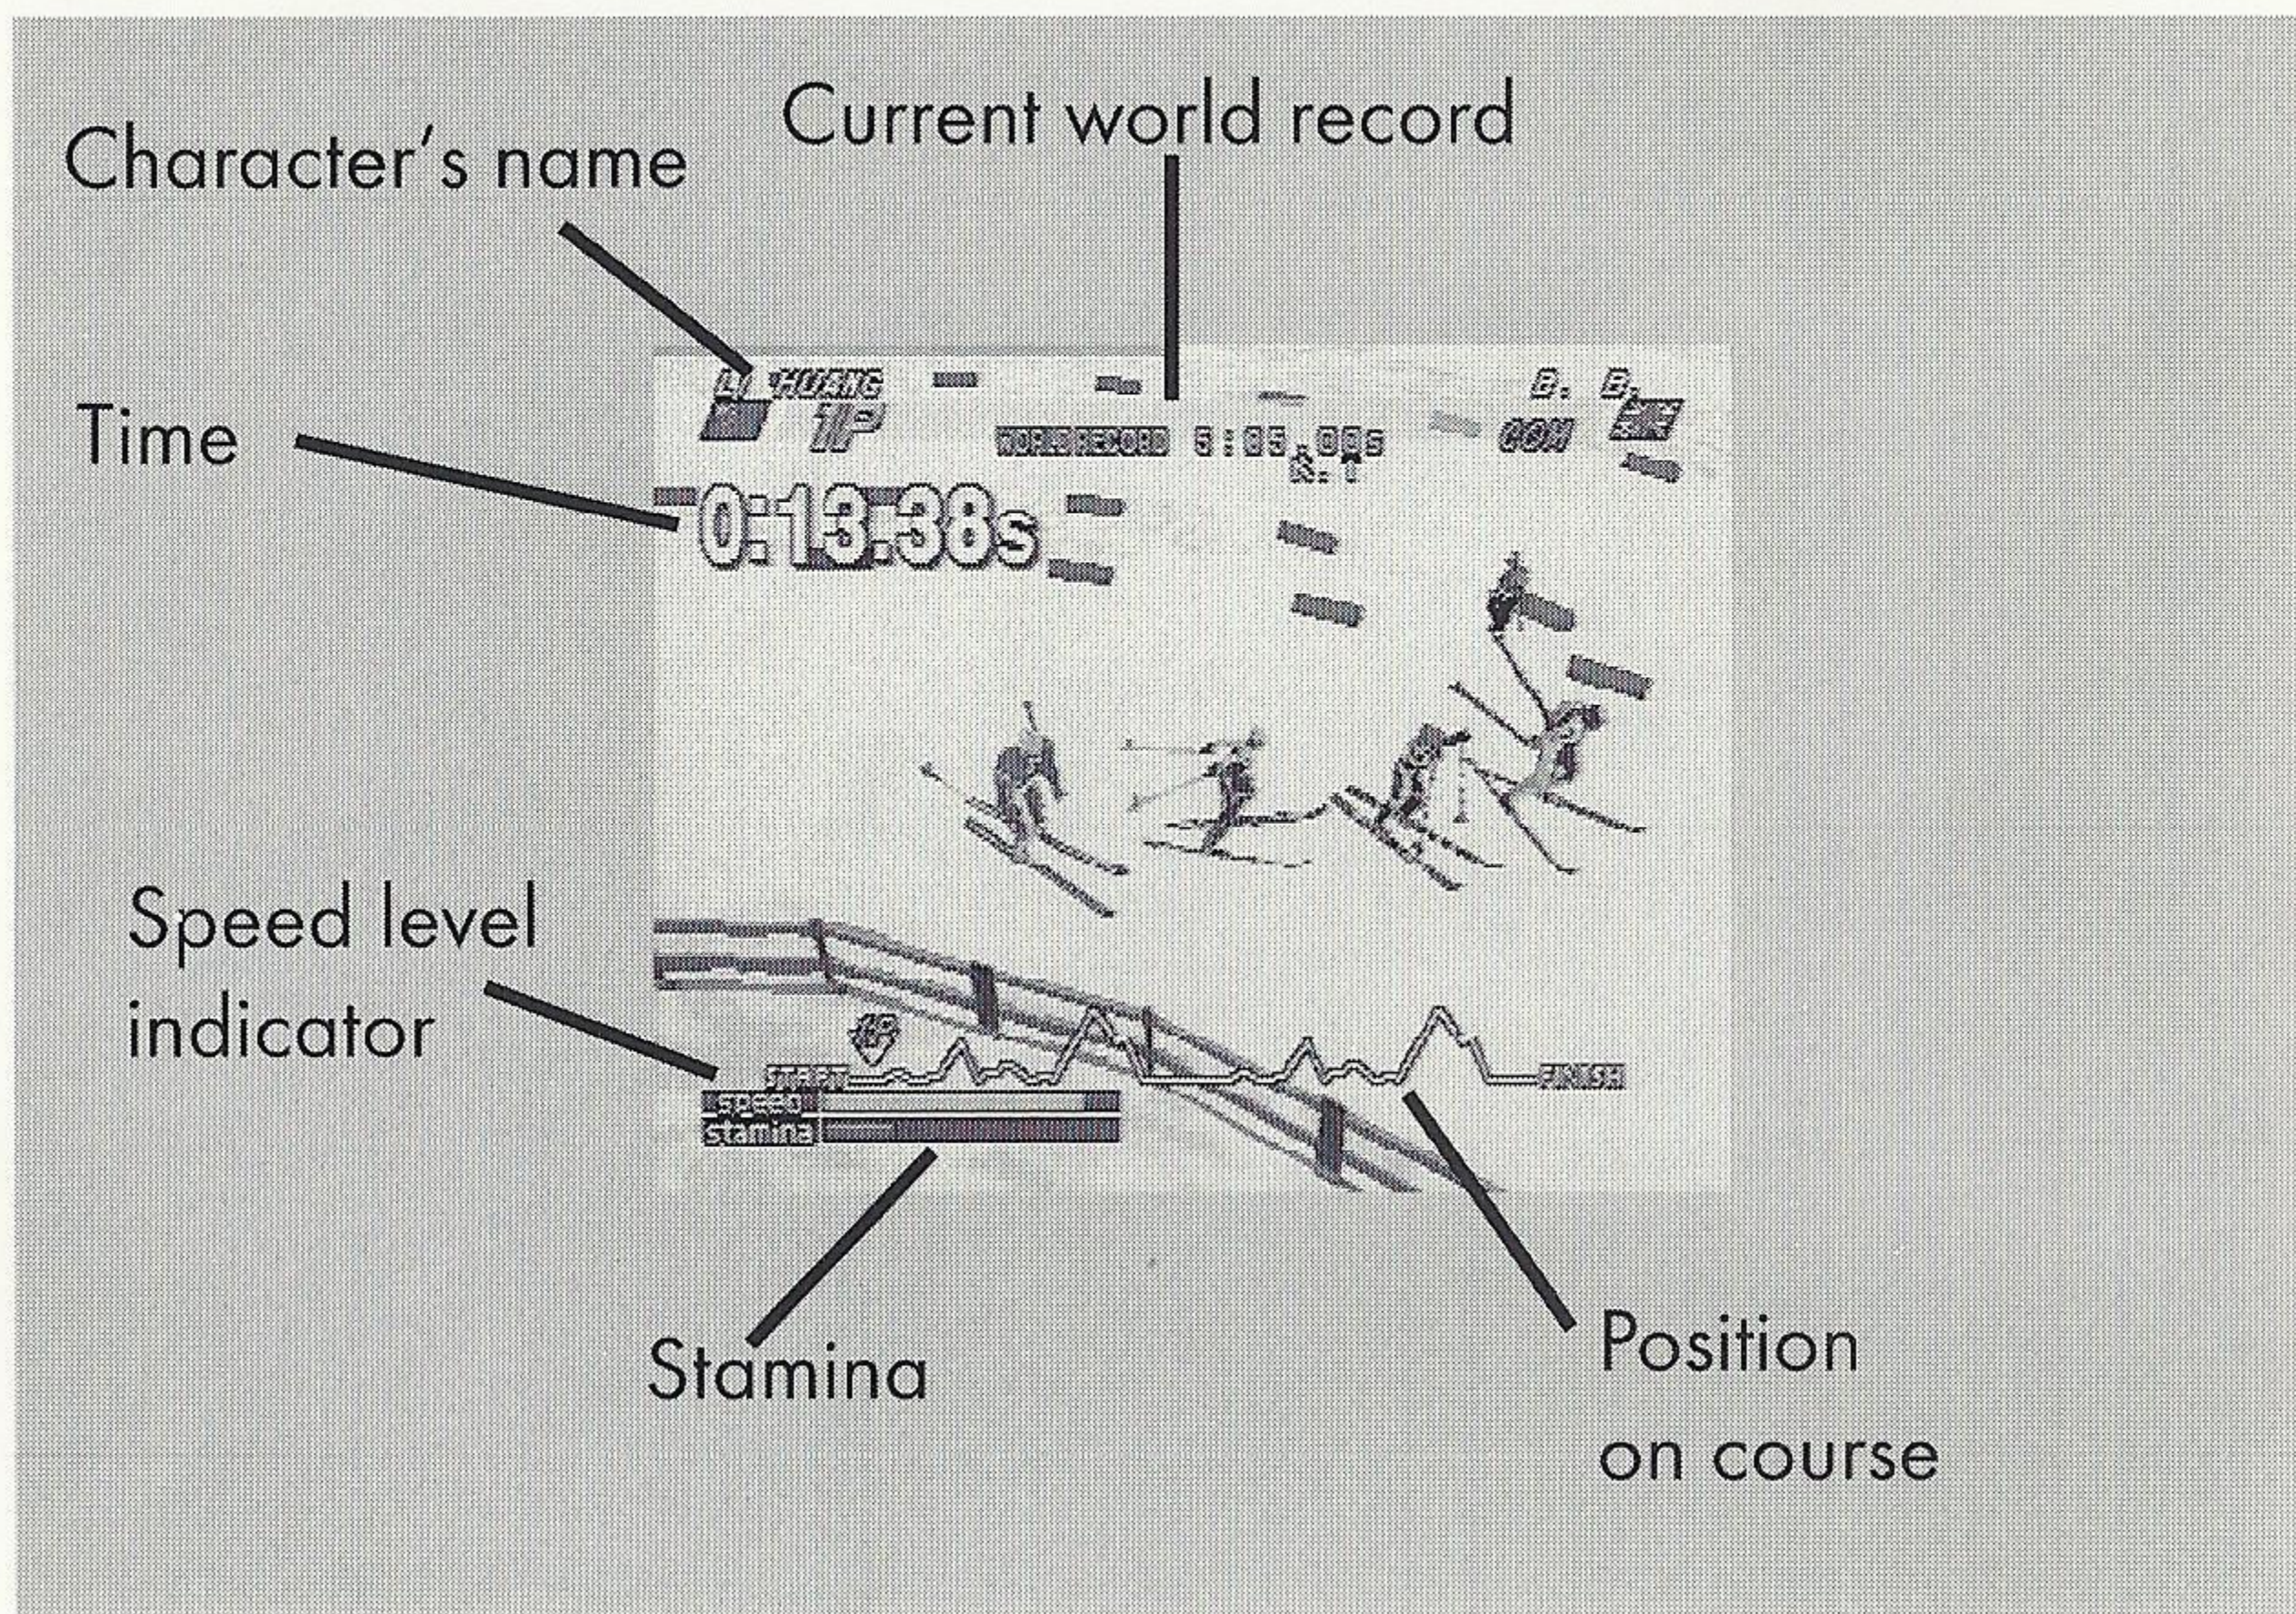

Snowboard

Once "GO" appears on the screen, repeatedly press a SPEED Button for an initial push off. Once you've gained enough initial speed, stop pressing the SPEED Button and concentrate on steering through the course using the D-Pad. Keep to the side of the flags indicated by the arrow. Riding past a flag on the wrong side incurs a time penalty.

There are a number of jumps in the course. A triangular warning sign appears to warn you of a jump ahead. To land successfully, press an ACTION Button before the edge of the jump (indicated by red stripes).

Cross-country

Once "GO" appears on the screen, press a SPEED Button rapidly to gain speed.

Of course, the aim is to finish in the fastest time possible; however, you must regulate your speed according to your current stamina level (shown on the Stamina level Indicator). When your Stamina level is high, it's OK to go as fast as possible, but when the stamina level drops, slow the pace accordingly, and allow your character an opportunity for recovery.

Press the D-Pad to maneuver around other competitors when jostling for the top spot.
