Three of the best from the tremendous team at Tengen

Comic-book excitement, sporting dynamite, and maddening arcade puzzles!

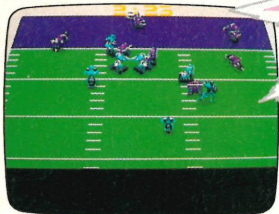

This is the fantastic compilation that the Home Computer Club's Editors said we had to offer you! If you've been in the coin-op arcades recently you'll know that Tengen games are some of the most furiously sought after!

Only this time you don't have to line up with your 10p pieces. No — as a Home Computer Club member, you can land three top Tengen titles in one great-value scoop, buy and play them at home for as long as you like.

So what do you get in our Tengen Triple? How about the Tic-tac-Tile game Klax, the furious American-football type action of Cyberball, and the bizarre comic-book graphics of Escape from the Planet of the Robot Monsters!

Let's take them one at a time.

Klax is a great strategy game. Why is it so special? Because for the first time ever coin-op and home computer versions of a new game have been released at the same time. So you'll be playing Klax at about the same time as it hits the coin-ops.

Amiga screens

It looks simple. Just catch the coloured tiles as they roll down the screen and flip them into the bins below. Only the catch comes when you have to stack them up in the same colours. And to make matters worse they gradually start rolling down faster and faster. So you have to work extra hard to flip them up. Soon you'll learn how to stack 'em and flip 'em together. In the meantime you're in for a lot of addictive frustration as you drop and miss the tiles as they drop with ever increasing speed and complexity. Just one more go — please!

Cyberball — the future of football is here now!

Take a normal game of American football, change the human players for gigantic robots, throw away the rule book and you've got Cyberball. This is no ordinary deviation. Instead of a pig-skin ball, the Cyborgs play with a massive steel ball filled with high explosives.

The fun comes when you pit two of these awesome robot teams against each other. Smash, Crash. Within seconds some are down, others are burning up, still more have been crushed.

It all depends how well you've worked out the right tactics to decimate the opposing team!

All the tactics of American football have been retained. Only this time the players fight it out to the finish!

Escape to a wonderful comic world!

It's just like an animated comic book. With its great cartoon graphics and superb presentation, Escape from the Planet of the Robot Monsters is one of the most original computer games that's recently come our way.

Imagine opening the pages of a comic and then taking part in the adventure. That's how this Tengen coin-op conversion works.

You'll be instantly transported to the surface of Planet X where an army of reptilons have enslaved the humans stationed there and forced them to build a robot army that will destroy Earth!

Control the heroes Jake and Duke as they battle through hordes of robots in their search for the lovely Professor Sarah Bellum.

It's a race in and out of the factory levels, solving puzzles, breaking into and entering prohibited areas, uncovering extra weaponry, and finally bringing about the downfall of the robot monsters.

Five levels of street fighting combat adapted from the top coin-op hit.

Fast forward to the future and some time in the New York city of 1994. Law and order has completely broken down so that the street gangs dominate the city. With the police and army helpless there's only one good guy who can control the deadly street gangs that prowl the five locations of main street, the junkyard, Brooklyn Bridge, back streets and construction site. Each location is home to a gang with its own blend of viciousness. Some use knives and chains, others resort to dynamite, some even use their motorbikes as weapons. They've all got one aim, and that's to terminate the Vigilante.

But the Vigilante is no ordinary street fighter. He's got superb skills in acrobatics, kung-fu and the martial arts. Under your command he'll kick, punch, and smash his way through all five levels of this hard-hitting, action-packed combat game.

Our great Gallic games double!

A fabulous re-creation of a typical Tin Tin tale!

Tin Tin on the Moon is like several arcade games in one. First comes the graphic launch sequence as Tin Tin's space ship takes off from Earth. This is the first part of the challenge. The second sequence is on board the rocket itself, where the task is to extinguish fires, defuse bombs, rescue his captured colleagues and catch Colonel Boris. At last comes the moon landing. You'll have to adjust the speed and slow the descent. Our second great Infogrames offering is Bobo bounces back! Bobo is back behind bars at the notorious Inzeeslammer prison and depends on you to get him through the day in a series of arcade challenges.

Combat flying by the seat of your pants

Eight levels of aerial dog fighting in the WWII US fighter.

Enemy aircraft are attacking out of the sun. But they've reckoned without your flying skills and the formidable abilities of the P47 Thunderbolt fighter. This is where you put on your trusty flying jacket and battle it out through eight levels of horizontal-scrolling arcade fighting pitched at four difficult stages. Super graphics and detail make this an atmospheric arcade conversion to remember.

You'll come up against enemy ships, tanks and aircraft facing attack at every turn. Armed with bombs and machine-guns your P47 is a deadly weapon that can inflict massive damage in the hands of the right flyer. Is that you?

A double helping of car crazy danger

The faster you go the harder it gets!

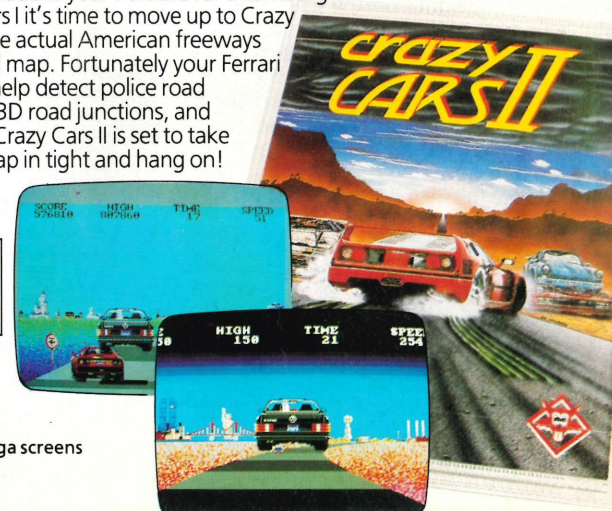

Just take a look at this irresistible double-offer. For the first time you can collect the two Crazy Cars classics in one colossal compilation! All you have to do is motor from Florida to Arizona as a participant in the American Cross Country Prestige Cars Race. If you manage to complete the race before the allotted time, you'll trade in your Porsche for a Lamborghini.

If you've mastered Crazy Cars I it's time to move up to Crazy Cars II. Plan your route across the actual American freeways displayed on the miniature road map. Fortunately your Ferrari has advanced radar which will help detect police road blocks. With 360 degree spins, 3D road junctions, and realistically mapped highways, Crazy Cars II is set to take you on the ride of a lifetime. Strap in tight and hang on!

The two-in-one program for all your writing and filing needs

One — it's a word processor.
Two — it's a database.

Throw out your typewriter. Give the filing cabinet to the junk man. With Perfect Recall and your Commodore your writing and filing tasks join the 20th Century. This is a great integrated program that means you can switch from writing to filing without having to swap disks or programs. That's because both programs work together in the computer at the same time.

Perfect Recall has great mail merge powers and can insert all the names and addresses from a database into a letter. Suddenly writing a letter and personally addressing it to dozens of people is done with a few keystrokes. The word processor is as easy to use as a typewriter. Only much more powerful. It has full electronic editing facilities to enable your first print-out to be perfect. The filing part of the program can store and sort hundreds of facts and figures. Say goodbye to tedious manual writing and filing and say hello to Perfect Recall!

Two of the roughest, toughest cinema hits come to your computer screen!

Join the two top crime busters on their exciting exploits.

Just like Batman — The Movie, this rollicking movie spin-off from Ocean is lifted straight from the script of the film. So you'll follow Batman on each of the five stages of his fight against the Joker with gameplay and graphics closely modelled on the actual film footage and reproducing the mood, excitement and danger. With its astounding mix of 3D graphics and incredible animated perspective, The Untouchables is being acclaimed by reviewers as one of the best film spin-offs ever. This incredible multi-event game recaptures the action of the movie in which government man, Elliott Ness, and his hand-picked band of crime fighters go up against Al Capone himself.

With its soundtrack of famous tunes from the period, and the incredible attention to detail, The Untouchables adds up to an arresting game of gang-busting.

18 holes selected by the grand golfing master himself

Play against a computerised Jack Nicklaus.

Time for tee as you take on the greatest 18 holes of championship golf in this phenomenal recreation of top level golf.

You'll play some of the most challenging courses and holes in the world: from Augusta and St Andrews, to Pebble Beach, Royal Lytham and Oakmont as well as two additional courses designed by Jack Nicklaus himself.

Every dynamic aspect of the real game has been faithfully programmed into this simulation to bring you the most realistic and visually exciting computer golf game ever. Every factor affecting performance has been brought into the equation; wind direction and intensity, slopes, gradients and lies. Plus random pin placement means no hole ever plays the same way twice. Select skins or stroke play. Skins is the popular head-to-head, that means you try and win the most money. Stroke play has you competing to shoot the lowest score over 18 holes.

The game offers you nine different computer players to go up against; from the expert Jack Nicklaus through to competing with beginners, weekend golfers and other players with specific strengths and weaknesses.

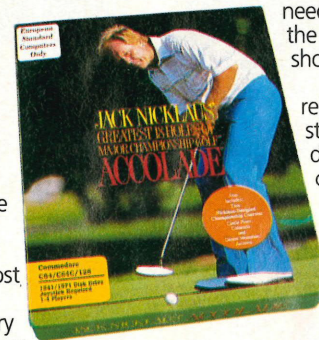

The overhead view of each hole gives you the basic data of course name, hole number, par and distance from each tee. You'll need to analyse the hazards, identify the optimum target areas for your shots and plot the ideal route.

Next choose your clubs in relation to the distance and wind strength. If you don't like the direction you're aiming in, the computer lets you change your perspective. Then, by carefully judging the swing and power bar, you choose the optimum moment to strike. Watch out for those overswings and underswings that will hook or slice the ball away from the target area. At the end of each round your final score is recorded and compared to the score of anyone else who has ever played from your disk. It's not easy, but with practice you might be able to beat the computer Jack Nicklaus. Fore!

Freescape's back and it's better and faster than ever

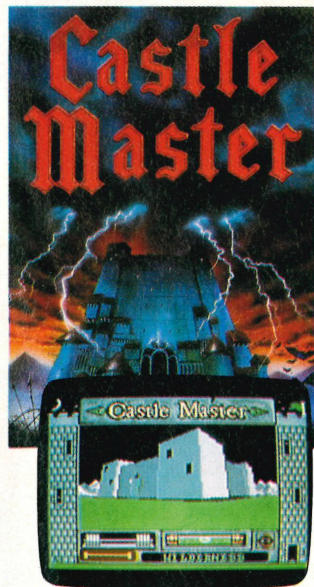

Walk through the castle in a real 3D moving landscape.

Castle Master is the third Freescape adventure we've offered and it's certainly the fastest. You take on the role of a noble Crusader on a quest to destroy the evil spirits that lurk inside a castle and free the prince and princess who have been held prisoner by these dark forces. Start off approaching the Castle Eternity from a distance, as you move closer its walls and turrets loom closer. Then cross the shark-infested moat to gain entry. From then on you enter the catacomb of rooms, courtyard and stables that hide dark secrets. On the way you must collect the magic keys that will open the way deeper and deeper into the castle. Each room has objects and doors that must be investigated. These invariably lead to more corridors and passageways. Armed only with a sling you must do battle with evil spirits, demons, rats and bats.

Included in the pack is CASTLE MASTER 2, 'The Crypt', this is available to Home Computer Club members exclusively.

Your chance to run the most famous club in the world

Thanks to the magic of the micro, you don't have to spend millions to take over Manchester United. All you need is your computer and soon you'll be wheeling and dealing, kicking, and scoring your way to the top of the First Division. The game sprawls across two sections. In the first part you control team selection and purchases to assemble the strongest squad possible for the funds available.

Then comes the hard training sessions and you join your players in the gym and on the field where they practise their skills and techniques and get super-fit for the next fixture. When the squad's ready you choose to challenge for the Treble; League, FA Cup or Littlewoods Cup, just like in real football life. And just as in real life, all the problems that haunt every trainer and manager will be thrown at you; injury, suspension, players off form, and players being sold.

MANCHESTER UNITED

Catch a load of this collection for the kids!

Exclusive to the Home Computer Club.

Look what we've put together just for you. A quintet of five fabulous games to keep the younger set amused for hours.

Watch how Sooty and Sweep, those famous TV glove puppets, come alive in a hilarious sequence of knock-about arcade games.

Meet TV's newest cartoon hero Count Duckula as he searches the tomb of the great Pharaoh Upanatem for the ancient saxophone with mystical powers. Duckula must explore the Pyramid tomb solving puzzles and collecting useful items, while his two pals Igor and Nanny keep an eye out for marauding mummies!

In Popeye, the favourite cartoon sailor has to keep his sweetheart Olive Oyl happy by collecting the scattered hearts and handing them to her. But arch-rival Bluto is waiting in the wings ready to pounce on the lovesick sailor. He'll survive Bluto and the other hazards by giving him a tin of spinach. But there is only a limited supply.

More disgusting goings on take place in Trapdoor where the hapless Berk has to complete various tasks to keep the Thing upstairs happy. Opening the trap door unleashes spooks and other horrible monstrosities.

Bond's back and you're his controller

Taken straight from the famous film.

When you take on drug baron Sanchez, it's like stepping straight into the silver screen with this fabulous re-creation of the great James Bond movie. Just like the cinema version you'll control James Bond as he fights off villains, hitches rides on seaplanes, chases the bad guys in a helicopter, and fights them to the finish.

The first level starts with a helicopter chase after the villain's jeep. Then there's a ground level gunfight with you looking down Bond's gun arm as the bad guys take pot shots. On to the underwater sequence as Bond is chased by Sanchez's frogmen. Then up and away for the seaplane sequence and you've got to get Bond aboard the aircraft. Only then does the scene become set for the final battle with arch-criminal Sanchez.

A shoot-em-up and driving simulation in one great game

Plus – a platform adventure through time.

It takes a super-soldier to penetrate the secret military depot and that's just what you've become. Vendetta is the great 3D arcade combat and driving mission that requires you to be fast on the trigger finger and clever at solving puzzles.

The mission is to find the kidnapped professor and his daughter within the one-hour deadline that marks the detonation of a nuclear bomb. Sneaking around a warehouse, our hero has to collect weaponry, photographic evidence and crack the secret computer code that will tell him where the professor is being held.

Once the destination is revealed, it's into the armed Ferrari F40 for a duel on the tarmac against enemy cars and helicopter gunships. Six levels and three combat and driving levels will give you plenty to think about.

In Myth you'll journey through all the mythological eras of time including Roman, Greek, Norse, Viking and Egyptian; fighting the great mythical characters of folklore. The world's future is at stake and must be brought back to normality. But this can only happen if you learn the lessons of the past and apply them to the future.

As you teleport through time you'll meet strange mythical characters and collect the objects essential to success. Take nothing for granted and never trust the obvious.

Level 9 does it again!

The ghostly private-eye quest from the top adventure software house!

It's Level 9's latest adventure. It's Scapeghost, a ghostly detective tale that takes you into a hundred locations. Yet this game has a strange twist. For you are a ghost, betrayed to a criminal gang and blamed for your own death when in fact they escaped with a hostage. Now you're back in your old haunts with a mission to clear your name. This time you've come equipped with detective skills and psychic powers.

You'll see your own funeral, visit your own grave, and walk among villains and associates who don't realise you're there. With one tap of the keyboard you'll be transported into an ethereal world where reality is suspended. As the ghost, you'll need to ask hundreds of questions, solve dozens of multi-person puzzles that require the co-operation of several characters, and issue dozens of commands to the worldly inhabitants who seek to exploit the fact that you're no longer around. You've got three nights to round up the gangsters and clear your name.

Sword-swishing excitement from the acrobatic avenger!

With its digitised sound and wondrous graphics, Strider is the frenetic chop-em-up game that will demand every ounce of combat concentration.

This acrobatic super-soldier is equipped with a fearsome sword that he wields with ferocious effect.

With his Olympic-class gymnastics and lightning reactions he's the one-man assault force infiltrating the Russian red army to capture the secrets of the Eastern empire and defeat the Grand Master.

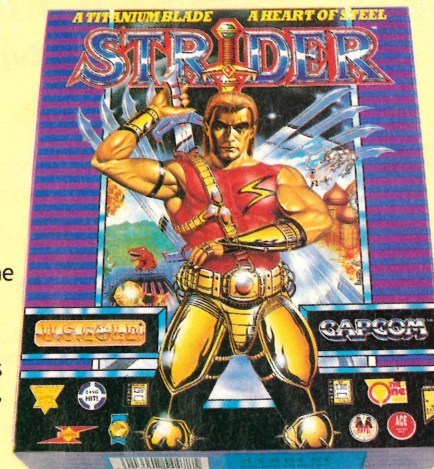

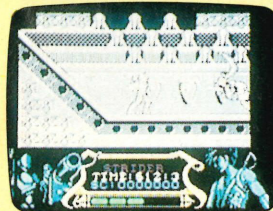

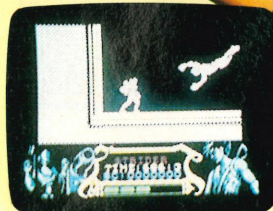

Strider's mission begins as he is dropped into Red Square. Immediately the battle starts as enemy guards try and pick him off. If he's quick Strider will run, jump, tumble, and roll his way out of danger. All the while his terrible sword despatches those KGB unfortunates who get in his way.

Over the rooftops and domes he fights until he breaks through to the other combat levels. There are the snow-capped scenes in Siberia, the fight against the spears and poisoned arrows of the tribes of the lowlands, then back to Moscow to battle with the Grand Master himself. Of course this assumes that you can get Strider through unharmed. For unless you're quick and agile he'll eventually fall victim to one enemy or another. Even if the bullets and hostile weaponry doesn't get him, he could easily take a life-losing plunge through a mistimed leap.

"Highly addictive... graphics are stunning. The best conversion from US Gold to date." Computer and Video Games

"Will have you hooked right from the start." Ace

So real you could be there!

Complete with free World Cup file of facts.

World Cup fever is upon us. And you can have an edge over those armchair athletes who are stuck with the TV games by playing your very own World Cup tournament. This is the soccer simulation that lets you run your very own World Cup series. It comes complete with TV style presentation, variable match duration, and even a referee who can use a "red card"!

But what really makes Italy 1990 stand out from the humdrum run of other soccer games is the way it includes authentic detail. What does this mean? That you choose your team from real playing squads with real soccer stars who have been programmed with the same strengths and weaknesses as their real life counterparts. Each player has variable skills, speed, strength and aggression. All the World Cup countries are represented and the tournament is structured just like the real event. So you must battle with your team through a league sequence and again through the knock-out matches playing the countries you could expect to encounter in a real World Cup tournament. That means a full team seeding system.

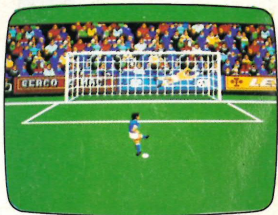

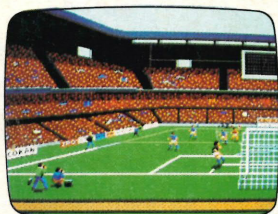

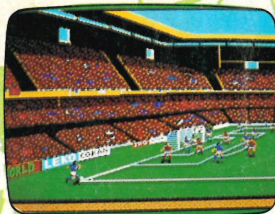

To add to the atmosphere, the pack includes a 64-page colour booklet telling you everything you need to know about the 1990 World Cup finalist teams; squad lists, previous Cup performances, qualifying round tables, and fixture calendar. As with all US Gold software, the quality of the graphics is beyond reproach. Screen views change 3D perspectives as if a battery of TV cameras was monitoring the action. Here we go, here we go, here we go!
