Acknowledgments

As always, there are a lot of people that contributed in putting this all together. Thanks to: Kirk Somdal, Charlie Maranan, Joel Ness, Morgan Clark, Shaun Wharton, and Tim Grimaud at THQ for getting me all the information I needed, Yuke's for turning out another great wrestling game; Christy, Carrie, and all the gang at Prima for keeping me on pace; Jean for providing the translations; Deana for sorting out my typos; and Simon for a great layout.

Of course none of the hard work I put into this guide would have meant anything if I didn't have my family. Lisa, Michelle, and Michael are always there for me, and I could not do it without them.

Remember, the match is never over. Hollywood Hulk Hogan™ is down here, but not out!

You can always pull out the victory.

Wrestling Basics

Game Basics

Are you ready to step into the squared circle and take on the best of World Wrestling Entertainment™? Not yet, mister; you're just a Superstar—you have to prove your worth. After all, you want to be the best of the best when you take on your friends, right? Check out this section for a rundown of all you need to know about how to become the next rising star in WWE. With a little practice, you'll be ready to compete for all of the championship belts and become the ruler of WrestleMania®.

Basic Controls

Action	Button Command
Walk	Control stick
Run toward opponent	(Y)
Grapple	(A)
Attack	(B)
Irish Whip	(A)+(Y)
Climb turnbuckle	(X) + control stick
Step through ropes	(X) + control stick
Stand on apron	(X) + control stick
Quickly exit/enter the ring	(Y), (X)
Pin	(Z)
Tag partner	(Z) + control stick toward partner
Taunt	D-Pad
Focus on different opponent	C stick
Finishing move	(A)+(B)

Wear down your opponent before you go for the pin. Here Bradshaw™ takes it to Chris Jericho™ with repeated striking attacks (B).

Is your opponent lying dazed on the mat? Don't let up; keep taking it to him like Hollywood Hulk Hogan™ does here with an Elbow Drop™.

With your opponent on the ground, go for the pin (Z). In a regular match, pin your opponent in the ring with a three-count to win.

Weapons

Foreign objects always manage to find their way into the ring. Look for sledgehammers, tables, chairs, and more to use on your opponent. Weapons do more damage to your opponent than a standard striking attack, but watch out: Weapon attacks take longer than standard attacks. This means your opponent can get a shot in and prevent you from attacking.

Use a weapon on your opponent to do some heavy damage.

Watch out! Weapon attacks are on the slow side. You give your opponent a chance to prevent your attack.

Climb the Turnbuckle

With your opponent dazed on the mat, climb the turnbuckle (X) + control stick) to deliver a crushing blow.

WrestleMania® History

The first WrestleMania® event was held on March 31, 1985; it was not a pay-per-view event. More than one million crazed wrestling fans jammed into theaters across the country to watch the event on closed-circuit television. The title match featured Hulk Hogan™ and Mr. T™ battling Roddy Piper™ and Paul Orndorff™.

Finishing Moves

Watch the green mark on the screen. As you continue to pummel your opponent, you begin to fill up the special slots for your Superstar. Once you have one, you can perform a signature move. Here Stone cold Steve Austin™ delivers a Stone Cold Stunner™ on Kevin Nash™.

Exhibition Matches

You've got the basics down; now you can take on the best of WWE. Via the Exhibition setup screen, customize your match. Want a Tornado Tag Team match? Select Tag Team and set the Tornado option. Your partner flies into the ring without you having to tag up. It's a flurry of action in the ring. For out-of-the-ring action, turn ring count-outs off and go for the pin anywhere the action takes you. Going for the submission? Then take on any WWE Superstar in a Submission match.

Single

Fight it out in the ring until your opponent wears down, then go for the pin.

Tag Team

It's two-on-two in a Tag Team match. Select your partner carefully—pick a partner who complements your style of wrestling.

The Tornado Tag option allows your partner to hop into the action anytime.

Handicap

Select the Handicap option to take on two Superstars at the same time. In a Handicap match, concentrate your big moves on one of the Superstars while you keep the other at bay with striking or grappling attacks.

Triple-Threat™

It's one-on-one-on-one in a Triple-Threat™ match. Pin only one of the Superstars to win, but watch your back. Loyalties quickly change when the third Superstar sees you going for a pin. The third Superstar should be dazed or far away before you go for the pin.

Fatal Four-Way™

Fatal Four-Way™ is similar to the Triple-Threat™ except four Superstars go at it. Pin only one of them to win; concentrate your efforts on a single Superstar. Be careful, though; you could wear someone down only to let another Superstar get the pin.

Battle Royal

Like a Fatal Four-Way, there are four Superstars in the ring doing battle. This time, however, you must defeat all three of your opponents to emerge victorious. Follow the same strategy as before. Get the first opponent out of the ring, then move on to the next.

Royal Rumble®

The Royal Rumble® is one of the greatest spectacles in WrestleMania®. Thirty of the top Superstars enter the ring. The last one standing is the winner. To win a Royal Rumble® you have to fight a near-perfect match. Practice your countermoves and stay near the outside of the ring. This keeps you from getting tied up between multiple Superstars.

Hardcore Match

Grab a weapon and get ready for some hard-hitting action. Anything goes in a Hardcore match. Go for a quick striking attack if your opponent swings a weapon at you. Your attack is quicker and disrupts the blow.

Submission Matches

Going for a pin fall won't work in a Submission match. To win, wear your opponent down with a steady stream of striking attacks and big grappling moves. Once your opponent is worn out, go for a submission move like a Sleeper Hold™. If your opponent has had enough, you come away with the victory.

Cage Match

The only way to win a Cage match is to climb the 10-foot chain-link fence. The first Superstar out of the ring is the winner. Deliver a crushing blow (like a big-time special move or a powerful slam) to temporarily daze your opponent. This allows you time to climb out.

Hell in the Cell™

Hell in the Cell™ adds a roof to the 10-foot chain-link fence. Climb up and do battle on top of the cage. Watch your opponent get slammed through the cage to the canvas below. To exit the cage, break your opponent through the fence with an Irish Whip (A+D). You might have to repeat the maneuver to blast through the walls or roof. To win a Hell in the Cell™ match, you need a submission or a pin fall.

Ladder Match

In a Ladder match, the title belt dangles from the ceiling; set up a ladder in the ring and climb to get it. Before you go for the belt, daze your opponent so you have time to climb and get it. Also, swing the ladder like a weapon to weaken and daze your opponent.

WrestleMania® History

Do you like Ladder matches? Then watch WrestleMania® X. Shawn Michaels™ and Razor Ramon™ squared off in one of the most memorable Ladder matches in history. Razor Ramon™ won the match and claimed the Intercontinental Championship belt.

Table Match

Table matches are tricky. To win one, knock your opponent out through the table. To do this, set up the table near the turnbuckle, then throw your opponent onto the table. Climb up the turnbuckle (X + control stick) and strike from the top rope.

TLC Match™

There's no tender loving care in a TLC™ match—TLC™ stands for Tables, Ladders & Chairs™. Use the tables and chairs to subdue your opponent long enough for you to use the ladder to grab the title belt.

Ironman Match

When you pin an opponent in an Ironman match, your Superstar wins points. But the match continues until the time limit expires. The Superstar with the most points at the end of the time limit wins. The Ironman match is only available as a Single competition, not for Tag Team, Triple-Threat™, Fatal Four-Way™, Battle Royal, or Royal Rumble® matches.

WrestleMania® History

For the third installment of WrestleMania®, the Pontiac Silverdome was selected to host the event. And what an excellent choice it was—93,173 people packed in to see the Superstars do battle, the largest crowd for an indoor event. In the main event, Hulk Hogan™ took on Andre the Giant™ and won the championship. Wrestling fans will always remember the sight of Hogan™ body-slammng the massive Andre the Giant™ at WrestleMania® III.

Create a Superstar

The 42 Superstars included in WrestleMania® X8 aren't enough for you? Well, create your own with THQ's Create a Superstar feature. Customize everything about your Superstar-to-be—hair color and style, body type, attire. Then select your Superstar's moves. Can your Superstar perform a Reverse DDT, Big Splash™ or Facecrusher™? Give your Superstar all of your favorite moves. Use the table below as a guide.

Pick your character's hair-style, body type and attire.

Create your own Superstar and head into the squared circle against the top Talent of World Wrestling Entertainment™.

Your Superstar's repertoire can include any of the moves your favorite Superstars perform. Give them a taste of their own medicine as you lay the smack down.

Edit a Superstar is another option on the Create a Superstar screen, which enables you to change the moves of the 42 World Wrestling Entertainment™ Superstars. To see Chris Jericho™ perform the People's Elbow™, set it up. What if The Rock® could deliver the Hurricanrana? Now you can find out.

With Edit a Superstar, any Superstar can perform any move. Here Chris Jericho™ delivers The Rock®'s People's Elbow™ finishing move.

Capturing the Championship

Two paths through WrestleMania® lead to the championship. Along Path of a Champion, you climb the ranks to reach any of the six major titles of World Wrestling Entertainment™. Or select Battle for the Belts to collect the 51 belts available. You can put your belt on the line and let a friend try to take it from you, or you can compete for one of his or hers.

As you battle for the top spot, remember the basic strategies. Block and reverse your opponent's moves to claim the top spot in WWE. Practice your technique in Exhibition matches before going for your title shot. The WWE Superstars are the best in the business, so you need to be at the top of your game.

Practice, practice, practice. Strive for peak condition before heading into the squared circle to go for a title shot.

High-flying moves from the top of the ropes excite the fans and devastate your opponent. Watch out, though ...

... if your opponent gets up in time, your attempt ends in disaster. Pick your spots and weigh the risk versus reward before you climb the turnbuckle.

Similar advice applies when weapons are involved.

Swinging a weapon takes time. The move is telegraphed, so your opponent sneaks in with a quick attack.

As you move closer to the championship belts, the competition gets stiffer.

Use repeated, quick-striking attacks to wear down your opponent.

Once you've worked over the champ a little bit ...

... go for the big moves and then the pin. With a little patience the championship can be yours.

Championship Belts

-  Heavyweight title
-  Intercontinental title
-  European title

Six of the playable Superstars in WrestleMania® X8 are hidden. To play as Chris Benoit™, Raven™, Rhyno™, Ric Flair™, Stacy Keibler™ or Vince McMahon™, follow the Path of a Champion and capture the title belts. Each belt that you claim unlocks a hidden Superstar. When you win a 30 man Royal Rumble® event, you unlock the Royal Rumble® 2001 arena. And when you play a match in each of the default arenas, the WrestleMania® X-7 arena becomes available.

BIG SHOW™

Bio

Big Show™ tore into this organization—literally. He first showed up at St. Valentine's Day Massacre™ in February 1999, by ripping through the ring canvas and, in an amazing display of strength, throwing Stone Cold Steve Austin™ through a steel cage! Since then, he has proven that his big debut wasn't a fluke. Simply put, Big Show™ is a blue chipper. Whether it is lifting up an entire ring or pulling the entire TitanTron™ down to the floor, he puts on a show that fans won't soon forget.

BUBBA RAY DUDLEY™

Bio

The Dudley Boyz™ have made claims on many occasions that they are the best tag team in the world today, and history supports their beliefs, as they are the only tag team to ever win the Federation, WCW™, and ECW Tag Team Championships. The Dudley Boyz™ had previously spent four years in the Philadelphia-based Extreme Championship Wrestling promotion. Bubba Ray™ joined up first, and D-Von™, a native of the "South Side of Dudleyville™," came shortly after.

While there, the Dudleyz™ competed in some of the most violent, bloody, and dangerous matches ever, battling in barbed-wire rings and throwing their opponents through flaming tables on many occasions. In addition, their finisher, 3D™—the Dudley Death Drop™—is one of the most feared maneuvers in the world.

With the recent brand extension, the brothers have been making a name for themselves as single stars. On his first night solo, Bubba captured the Hardcore Champion and has since revealed his dancing skills.

CHRIS JERICHO™

Bio

They said he was too small to ever be a “main-event Superstar.” They said he couldn’t “win the big one.” Chris Jericho™ proved them all wrong. Jericho™ first appeared on World Wrestling Entertainment™ television on the August 9, 1999, episode of Raw®—live from Chicago. Windy City fans have a reputation for being rabid—and on that day, they more than lived up to it. When Jericho™ appeared on the TitanTron™, the fans went crazy. A star was born. Jericho™ immediately gave himself a nickname—“Y2J™”—to emphasize that he was the Superstar for the new millennium. During the ensuing two years, Jericho™ won the Intercontinental Championship on four occasions, the Tag Team Championship twice, and the European and Hardcore titles as well. An impressive résumé to be sure, but after coming in with such a bang, some critics suggested that his first two years with the company had been a disappointment because he didn’t win the World Championship. Before coming to this organization, Jericho™ had four unquestionably disappointing years in WCW™, so some doubters suggested that he lacked the size necessary ever to make it to the top. It certainly couldn’t have been a lack of charisma or athletic ability—Jericho™ has those to spare. Finally, in late 2001, Jericho™ forced all his doubters to, as he would say, “Shut the hell up.”™ He “won the big one,” defeating The Rock® at October’s No Mercy® pay-per-view to capture the WCW™ Championship. Then, in December at Vengeance™, he became the only man to defeat The Rock® and Stone Cold Steve Austin™ in the same night, and thus became the Undisputed World Champion. That night, December 9, in San Diego, California, he also became the only Superstar to hold five different titles in this organization.

CHRISTIAN™

Bio

Christian™ is the epitome of character development in World Wrestling Entertainment™. As a member of the cultlike faction, The Brood™, Christian™ captured the Light Heavyweight Championship from Taka Michinoku™ in his debut match on October 18, 1998. After he and his brother, fellow Superstar Edge™, broke away from The Brood™, the duo went on to become one of the most successful tag teams in history. Edge™ & Christian™ won the Tag Team Championship seven times, each time displaying their high-flying, risky maneuvers that made them fan favorites. However, after Edge™ won the King of the Ring® Tournament in June 2001, it was obvious to everyone that Christian™ had become a bitter, jealous man. His jealousy finally turned him against his brother, and the two had their share of epic singles matchups. Lately, Christian has been redefining himself as he puts his career on track to capture singles gold.

D-VON DUDLEY™

Bio

The Dudley Boyz™ have made claims on many occasions that they are the best tag team in the world today, and history supports their beliefs, as they are the only tag team to ever win the Federation, WCW™ and ECW Tag Team Championships. The Dudley Boyz™ had previously spent four years in the Philadelphia-based Extreme Championship Wrestling promotion. Bubba Ray™ joined up first, and D-Von™, a native of the "South Side of Dudleyville™," came shortly after.

While there, the Dudleyz™ competed in some of the most violent, bloody, and dangerous matches ever, battling in barbed-wire rings and throwing their opponents through flaming tables on many occasions. In addition, their finisher, 3D™—the Dudley Death Drop™—is one of the most feared maneuvers in the world.

With the recent brand extension, the brothers have been making a name for themselves as singles stars. On orders from Mr. McMahon™, D-Von™ found himself to become Mr. McMahon's™ spiritual advisor. He's here to love the good, destroy the bad and make his fellow Superstars "Testify.™"

EDGE™

Bio

How many of us can say that we accomplished our lifelong dream? How many of us can say that we're doing exactly what we wanted to do when we were children? Edge™ can.

One of the brightest young stars in World Wrestling Entertainment™, Edge™ sat on the floor for WrestleMania® VI at SkyDome in Toronto, watching Hulk Hogan™ battle Ultimate Warrior™. Although he was only 16 at the time, Edge™ already knew that he wanted to follow in the footsteps of Hogan™; he wanted to be a WWE Superstar. Twelve years later, more than 68,000 people watched Edge™ as he competed at WrestleMania® X8 at SkyDome in Toronto. Edge™ already accomplished a career highlight at SkyDome—in July 1999, when he won the Intercontinental Championship there. The Canadian Superstar has excelled in both singles and tag-team action. Along with his brother Christian™, he won the Tag Team Championship seven times, a record for a duo. Edge™ & Christian™ were also part of some of the most memorable tag matches in history—including the Ladder match at WrestleMania® 2000; the Tables, Ladders & Chairs™ (TLC™) match at SummerSlam™ in 2000; TLC™ II at WrestleMania® X-Seven; and TLC™ III on the May 24, 2001, episode of SmackDown!™ But when Edge™ won the 2001 King of the Ring® tournament, his brother Christian™ seemed to grow increasingly jealous. He insisted, for example, on always carrying Edge™'s King of the Ring® trophy. Then, on September 3, 2001, Edge™ was a part of another unforgettable event in Toronto—but this time, it was unforgettable in the sense that it was shocking. On a live episode of Raw® from the Air Canada Centre, Christian™ assaulted Edge™ with a steel chair as the hometown fans held their breath in disbelief. Arguably the greatest tag team in history had abruptly come to an end. Edge™ now looks to become one of the greatest singles competitors of all time. The early returns are favorable: he defeated Christian™ in an epic Ladder match at No Mercy® 2001 to become the Intercontinental Champion. In fact, he has already won the Intercontinental title on four occasions.

HOLLYWOOD HULK HOGAN™

Bio

In the 1980s, Hollywood Hulk Hogan™ (the performer) and Mr. McMahon™ (the promoter) revolutionized professional wrestling, taking it from dark, smoke-filled arenas to the mainstream. When Mr. McMahon™ created WrestleMania® in 1985, the main attraction was Hogan™. Two years later, Mr. McMahon™ wanted WrestleMania® to be “bigger, badder and better” than ever. WrestleMania® III, then, was held in front of 93,173 fans at the Pontiac Silverdome. The main attraction? Hogan™. By the time Hogan™ left this organization in the early 1990s and jumped to WCW™, he was such a big star that WCW™ became legitimate competition for this company. In 1996, he joined two other former Superstars—Scott Hall™ and Kevin Nash™—to form the nWo™ (New World Order).

Boosting ratings was merely an externality to Hogan™ and his nWo™ cohorts. They were only out for themselves. It didn't take long for WCW™ competitors to realize that, and eventually fans did as well. They were both driven away in droves as the weeks and months went by. In 2001, WCW™ went out of business.

Mr. McMahon™ brought Hogan™ back with the intention to destroy his company. But once the Hulkster™ rekindled his relationship with the fans, he decided he wanted no part of McMahon™ or the nWo's™ evil ways.

Now, Hogan™ has once again become one of the most popular athletes on the planet. So, watcha gonna do when Hulkamania™ runs wild?™

Bio

Jacqueline™ is one of the strongest, most athletic women on the World Wrestling Entertainment™ roster. In fact, her attributes rival those of many of the WWE's men. On numerous occasions, she has been known to mix it up in the ring with many of the male competitors.

Occasionally, Jackie™ will rekindle her competitive fire, competing in matches in the heated Women's Division or teaming with male Superstars for mixed tag-team competition.

JEFF HARDY™

Bio

The Hardy Boyz™ forever inscribed their names in the annals of World Wrestling Entertainment™ history with their breath-taking performance in the Ladder match at October 1999's No Mercy® pay-per-view, when they defeated Edge™ & Christian™ in a Ladder match. Since then, the Hardyz™ have been a part of nearly every memorable Tag Team match this organization has put on, including the infamous TLC™ Match at SummerSlam® 2000. With the lovely and high-flying Lita™ by their side, Matt™ and Jeff™ are top contenders for the Tag Team title, as well as likely singles title holders. Still in their early 20s, Matt™ and Jeff Hardy™ are two of the youngest—and most gifted—high-flying Superstars in World Wrestling Entertainment™ history.

KANE™

Bio

No Superstar in history has made more of an immediate impact than Kane™. On October 5, 1997, the world met Kane™, as the seven-foot monster tore off the door to Hell in the Cell™ in order to get to his brother, Undertaker™. The siblings later fought in the first-ever Inferno Match™! Less than one year after he arrived, Kane™ became the World Champion by defeating Stone Cold Steve Austin™ at the 1998 King of the Ring®. Though his reign was short lived, the seven-foot monster proved he could live up to all expectations. Since then, Kane™ has been a Tag Team Champion on five occasions. Once a man of no emotion, Kane™ has somewhat broken out of his shell. However, the seven-footer still remains a monster in the ring.

KEVIN NASH™

Bio

When Kevin Nash™ sets his mind to something, he usually accomplishes it. As WWE Superstar Diesel, Nash™ set his sights on the World Championship. Not only did he win it in November 1994, but he held it for a full year—the longest title reign in the past decade. Nash™ left this organization in 1996 for WCW™. He joined the nWo™ with Scott Hall™ and teamed with Hall™ to form the Outsiders™. They wanted WCW™'s Tag Team titles, and they got them. Later, he wanted the WCW™ Championship. Not only did he win it, but he did so at Starrcade™—WCW™'s flagship pay-per-view. Now Nash™ is back in the WWE. His goal this time? To put the company out of business, much the way he did in WCW™. Can anybody stop him?

KURT ANGLE™

Bio

Kurt Angle™ captured national attention in 1996 when he won the 220-pound freestyle wrestling competition at the Olympic Games in Atlanta. And the extraordinarily proud Angle™—some would say conceited—surely won't let anyone forget about it! When the crowd has the audacity not to cheer for him, Angle™ wonders aloud how anyone can boo a gold medalist. In 2000—Angle™'s first full year in this organization—the Pittsburgh native had probably the best rookie campaign in history. After winning the European and Intercontinental titles, Angle™ took the 2000 King of the Ring® crown. Then, in October, he won the World Championship, defeating The Rock® at No Mercy®. The momentum did not stop in 2001. Angle™ won the World Championship for a second time—beating Stone Cold Steve Austin™ in Angle™'s hometown—as well as the WCW™ title. Whether the crowd is chanting "Angle! Angle!"™ as they did that night in Pittsburgh, or, more likely, "You suck! You suck!"™ there's no denying Kurt Angle™'s accomplishments. When it's all said and done, Angle™ could go down in history as the greatest of all time. Oh, it's true!

LITA™

Bio

This fiery redhead has proven time and again that she packs more than a sultry look. Both men and women have fallen victim to Lita™'s arsenal of moonsaults and hurricanranas. Lita™'s career took off here when she became Women's Champion, and since teaming with the Hardy Boyz™, it has showed no signs of slowing down. And if things could get any hotter for Lita™, she and Matt Hardy™ have become an item—and haven't been shy about showing their affection for each other!

Given her ability in the ring, combined with her stunning looks, Lita™ could easily get her hands on anything she wants, be it Tag Team gold for the Hardy Boyz™ or another reign as Women's Champion for herself.

MATT HARDY™

Bio

The Hardy Boyz™ forever inscribed their names in the annals of World Wrestling Entertainment™ history with their breathtaking performance in the Ladder match at October 1999's No Mercy® pay-per-view, when they defeated Edge™ & Christian™ in a Ladder match. Since then, the Hardy™ have been a part of nearly every memorable Tag Team match this organization has put on, including the infamous TLC™ Match at SummerSlam® 2000. With the lovely and high-flying Lita™ by their side, Matt™ and Jeff™ are top contenders for the Tag Team title, as well as likely singles title holders. Still in their early 20s, Matt™ and Jeff Hardy™ are two of the youngest—and most gifted—high-flying Superstars in World Wrestling Entertainment™ history.

RAVEN™

Bio

“What about me? What about Raven™?” Good question. Citing his miserable past, Raven™ is the master of self-pity. He’s also a master of taking incredible amounts of punishment and coming back for more. A two-time Extreme Championship Wrestling Champion and two-time ECW Tag Team Champion, Raven™ can take it from the best of them, and dish out twice as much. Raven™’s goals in World Wrestling Entertainment™ are clear: to win some gold and show the world that he’s deserving of the respect he feels has eluded him his entire life.

RHYNO™

Bio

Dubbed "The Rookie Monster™" in Extreme Championship Wrestling, Rhyno™ compiled arguably the most dominant first year in the company's history, capturing both the ECW World Heavyweight and Television Championships. Rhyno™'s combination of power and agility made him an unstoppable force in ECW, and he's wasted no time in taking out the competition in the World Wrestling Entertainment™.

After running roughshod through ECW, Rhyno™ quickly asserted himself in here by helping Edge™ & Christian™ capture their record sixth Tag Team Championship, and was a major factor in helping E&C™ winning TLC™ II at WrestleMania® X-Seven. In ECW, Rhyno™ wasted no time in becoming a champion. Can he capture WWE gold just as quickly? Considering Rhyno™'s track record and what he brings to the table, it may be a good idea not to bet against him.

RIC FLAIR™

Bio

Ric Flair™ is perhaps the most incredible performer the sports-entertainment industry has ever seen. Over his legendary 25-year career, the "Nature Boy™" has been one of the most decorated Superstars of all time, having held the NWA/WCW™ title on 14 occasions, and the World Championship on two occasions. He is also a multi-time U.S. and Tag Team Champion. Besides being one of the most accomplished in-ring performers of our time, Flair™ is also a star outside the squared circle. The Nature Boy™ likes to call himself a "limousine-ridin', lear jet-flyin', kiss-stealin', wheelin'-dealin' son of a gun, who's kissed all the girls and made them cry!™" Indeed, Flair's™ charisma and energy have made him a favorite of fans from coast to coast, and especially in his hometown of Charlotte, North Carolina. During Flair's™ first tenure in this organization (from 1991 to 1993), he strutted around with the WCW™ title, calling himself the "Real World's Champion.™" In 1992, he staged perhaps the greatest performance in Royal Rumble® history, capturing the vacant World Championship by lasting over an hour in the Rumble® event. After losing the title to Randy Savage™ in the main event of WrestleMania® VIII, Flair™ regained the title in late August of 1992, and then lost the championship to Bret Hart™ the following month. Now, "Naitch™" is back, and he has again shocked the world by revealing that he is the 50-percent owner of World Wrestling Entertainment™! That means that the "Nature Boy™" and Vince McMahon™ must coexist as partners to run the biggest sports-entertainment company on the planet!

RIKISHI™

Bio

Weighing more than 400 pounds, Rikishi™ is one of the most imposing men in sports-entertainment. But perhaps the scariest thing about him is his butt—which he likes to stick in the face of opponents, as he delivers the dreaded Stink Face™!

Rikishi™ has enjoyed a great deal of success in this organization. As a member of the Headshrinkers™ tag team, he held the Tag Team Championship back in 1994. Since rejoining the company in 1999, he has enjoyed a successful run as Intercontinental Champion. He also made it to the finals of the 2000 King of the Ring® tournament, before narrowly losing to Kurt Angle™. The Phat Man™ was embroiled in controversy in late 2000 when it was revealed that he was driving the car that ran down Stone Cold Steve Austin™ at the 1999 Survivor Series®. But Rikishi™ has come a long way since then, earning back his spot in the hearts of fans around the world. After missing a good portion of 2001 due to injury, Rikishi™ is back and better than ever. And if anyone gets in his way, he might have a Stink Face™ for them—and a dance for the fans!

ROB VAN DAM™

Bio

Call Rob Van Dam™ what you will—"Mr. Monday Night™," "The Whole F'N Show™," "Mr. Pay-Per-View™"—but the RVD™ who helped lead ECW's invasion of this organization, is better, stronger and wiser. Van Dam™ captivated ECW's loyal following with scintillating martial arts skills and eye-popping maneuvers, including the Van Dam-inator™, the Van Terminator™ and the Five-Star Frog Splash. His magnificent abilities in the ring helped him set an ECW record 23-month reign as World Television Champion. Today, Van Dam™ says he's at the peak of his career, having fully recovered from a broken fibula that halted it for three months. And that's scary for anyone who thinks they can stop someone who has every right to brag about how great he is! Just ask the man who discovered him: "We built a huge part of ECW around Rob Van Dam™," said Paul Heyman™. "I have no regrets about that. He is perhaps the most spectacular athlete that this industry has to offer today."

SCOTT HALL™

Bio

Nobody knows more about injecting poison into a sports-entertainment company than Scott Hall™. Hall™ became a breakout star in this organization in the early 1990s, competing as Razor Ramon™. He even won the Intercontinental Championship on four occasions.

But, behind the scenes, Hall™ and his buddies—including Kevin Nash™—were making life miserable. The morale in the locker room was at an all-time low.

In 1996, fans got to see what Superstars and staff already knew: that Hall™ and his friends did what they wanted, when they wanted. Hall™ was the charter member of the New World Order™. During an episode of WCW™ Monday Nitro™ on Memorial Day 1996, Hall™ sauntered through the crowd and interrupted the live show, saying that he and his buddies were declaring war on WCW™.

It was one of the most shocking moments in sports-entertainment history, as were the appearances of Kevin Nash™ and Hollywood Hulk Hogan™ as his teammates. The trio was soon running roughshod through WCW™, attacking the organization from within, and ultimately leading to the group's downfall.

STEPHANIE McMAHON™

Bio

They call her the “Billion-Dollar Princess™”, and perhaps no nickname is more appropriate.

Since birth, Stephanie McMahon™ has led a privileged life. The daughter of Vince™ and Linda™ McMahon, Stephanie™ has grown up in the sports-entertainment business. She lives, eats, and breathes World Wrestling Entertainment™, and as a result, has developed one of the most cunning minds in the history of the industry. Stephanie™’s rise to Superstardom coincided with her surprise marriage to Triple H™ in November 1999. The couple wreaked havoc on the Federation during the ensuing “McMahon-Helmsley™ era,” a time that even saw Stephanie™ become Women’s Champion. After “The Game™” went down to a quadriiceps injury in May 2001, Stephanie™ stayed on the sidelines for a few months, but the lure of the squared circle was just too strong. In July 2001, she revealed to the world that she had purchased Extreme Championship Wrestling (ECW), and she and her brother, Shane™, formed the Alliance!

When the Alliance was driven out of business at the 2001 Survivor Series®, Stephanie™ was again thrust to the sidelines. After returning with Triple H™ in January 2002, Stephanie™ and “The Game™” began to have some marriage problems, and the “McMahon-Helmsley™ era” is now history! You don’t want to get on Stephanie McMahon™’s bad side. The “Billion-Dollar Princess™” has shown time and again that she’s no one to be messed with—and she always gets her way!

STONE COLD STEVE AUSTIN™

Bio

Stone Cold Steve Austin™ is arguably the greatest Superstar in the history of World Wrestling Entertainment™. A six-time World Champion, the Texas Rattlesnake™ has main-evented three WrestleMania® events, won the Royal Rumble® match three times, and has had memorable matches against the greatest Superstars in the game. Austin™'s era of greatness began at the 1996 King of the Ring®. After winning the tournament, Austin™ coined the phrase, "Austin 3:16™," which means that "I just whipped your ass!™" He would go on to win his first World Championship at WrestleMania® XIV in 1998 with some help from boxer Mike Tyson, and would then segue into the infamous "Austin™ vs. McMahon™" feud, which propelled sports-entertainment into the stratosphere. After returning from a career-threatening neck injury in 2000, the Rattlesnake™ quickly climbed back to the top of the roster, culminating in his World Championship win over The Rock® at WrestleMania® X-Seven, in front of 67,925 of his fellow Texans at the Reliant Astrodome! He's a trash-talkin', beer-swillin', finger-gesturin', ass-kickin' S.O.B., and millions of World Wrestling Entertainment™ fans wouldn't have it any other way!

TAJIRI™

Bio

"The Japanese Buzzsaw™" has arrived in World Wrestling Entertainment™! And there's no denying what this young stud is capable of accomplishing in the squared circle. While on a tour of Mexico, Tajiri™ incorporated a high-flying Lucha Libre style into his background of martial arts and Japanese shoot wrestling to become one of the top young junior heavyweights in the world. In 1998, Paul Heyman gave Tajiri™ an opportunity in Extreme Championship Wrestling, where the Japanese Buzzsaw™ worked a series of memorable matches, including a few with Tazz™. Tajiri's™ blinding, rapid-fire kicks to the face and an unorthodox maneuver called the Tarantula™ earned respect throughout the sports-entertainment world, and an eventual ticket here. These days, Tajiri™ has captured the WWE Cruiserweight title—but at a price. His jealousy has cost him his girlfriend, Torrie Wilson™.

The former multi-time ECW Champion made his debut here in grand style at the 2000 Royal Rumble® at Madison Square Garden. Tazz™ brought his hometown fans to their feet by choking out Kurt Angle™, ending Angle™'s months-long undefeated streak! Since then, Tazz™ has shown his toughness. He's also showed off his personality, acting as a commentator for SmackDown!® and Sunday Night Heat®. He's also showed off his wrestling knowledge, having been a trainer on the first season of WWE Tough Enough. Currently, he's kicking butt and taking names. And when his opponents meet the Tazzmission™, usually they become just another victim!

TEST™

Bio

At nearly 7-feet tall and a rock-solid 280 pounds, Test™ is one of the brightest shining stars in World Wrestling Entertainment™. After an early career as a bodyguard for Mötley Crüe and as a bouncer at various night clubs, the young Canadian entered this organization in December 1998 as part of Mr. McMahon's™ Corporation™. As the Corporation's™ "hired gun," Test™ quickly served notice that he was not someone to mess with. After the break-up of the Corporation™, Test™ turned his attention to another McMahon™—Stephanie McMahon™. The two had a whirlwind romance, and were set to be married in November 1999, until Stephanie™ revealed her marriage to Triple H™. With Triple H™ and Stephanie™ in control, Test™ was cast to the sidelines. He formed a successful tag team with Albert™ called T&A™, and enjoyed reigns as Hardcore and European Champion. But it wasn't until he joined the Alliance in August 2001 that his career truly began to blossom. As part of the Alliance, Test™ won the Tag Team Championship, WCW™ Tag Team Championship and Intercontinental Championship. He also found himself in the ring with such men as The Rock® and Chris Jericho™. The Alliance is no more, but Test™ has survived thanks to his win in the Immunity Battle Royal at the 2001 Survivor Series®. That means that until Survivor Series® 2002, he can do whatever he wants in World Wrestling Entertainment™—and he can't be fired! With the "hired gun" on the loose, nobody can stop Test™!

TRIPLE H™

Bio

Triple H™ calls himself "The Game™," and you'd be hard-pressed to find anyone who disagrees with that assumption. Since making his debut here in the spring of 1995, Hunter Hearst-Helmsley™ has done it all in the sports-entertainment industry. He's the only man in the history of the business to have been a Grand-Slam Champion and to have won the King of the Ring® and the Royal Rumble®. Triple H's™ dedication to the business was never more evident than on the May 21, 2001, episode of Raw®. On that night, "The Game™" teamed with Stone Cold Steve Austin™ to take on Chris Benoit™ and Chris Jericho™ in a Tag Team Championship match. During the bout, Triple H™ tore his left quadriceps muscle completely off the bone. Yet "The Game™" found the heart to finish the bout, never once even thinking about giving up. After eight months of hellacious rehab, "The Game™" returned to a hero's welcome on the January 7, 2002, episode of Raw®. Now a fan favorite for the first time in years, Triple H™ has also broken up with his wife, Stephanie McMahon™. Although the "Billion-Dollar Princess™" is out for "The Game's™" blood, Triple H™ will no doubt remain at the top of World Wrestling Entertainment™!

TRISH STRATUS™

Bio

One of the most sultry divas in the history of sports-entertainment, Trish Stratus™ has already made quite a name for herself here. Her beauty is second to none, and her brains and brawn make her the total package. Trish™ made her first appearance just prior to WrestleMania® 2000. She teamed up with Test™ and Albert™, calling them "T&A™." The duo was victorious at WrestleMania®, which was Trish's™ pay-per-view debut. Later that summer, she would guide Val Venis™ to the Intercontinental Championship before going off on her own and getting involved with the company's owner Vince McMahon™. The two spent a lot of time together that winter, earning the ire of Vince's daughter, Stephanie™. Stephanie™ and Trish™ engaged in a memorable match at No Way Out™ 2001, with Stephanie™ pulling out the win. A month later, at WrestleMania®, Trish™ would turn her back on Vince™ and Stephanie™, tired of being used. After laying low for a while, Trish™ made her next big bang at the 2001 Survivor Series®, capturing the Women's Championship for the first time. It seems that Trish™ is on top of her game—and she's determined not to let anyone knock her down!

UNDERTAKER®

Bio

If any one Superstar symbolizes World Wrestling Entertainment™, it's Undertaker®. For more than 11 years, Undertaker® has been a mainstay in this organization. He's feuded with all the greats—from Hulk Hogan™ to Stone Cold Steve Austin™ and The Rock®—and lived to tell about it. No other Superstar has ever had the run of success enjoyed by the American Badass™.

A three-time Champion, 'Taker® had the privilege of performing in the main event at WrestleMania® 13. In fact, 'Taker's WrestleMania® record is second to none—he is an amazing 10-0 at 'Mania events! Undertaker® has also been at the forefront of some of the most original matches and concepts in history. He is the innovator of Inferno Matches™, Casket Matches™, and, of course, the famed Hell in the Cell™ match. Although he has been cheered for most of his career, the fans have begun to boo the American Badass™ as of late. 'Taker® has been on a constant quest for respect, and that has come at the expense of some of the most popular Superstars in sports entertainment. If any man has earned respect over the past 11 years, it's the Undertaker®—and he's determined to make the fans show him some respect, especially now that he holds the WWE Undisputed Championship.

WILLIAM REGAL™

Bio

When William Regal™ joined this company in September 2000, he came as a goodwill ambassador from his homeland of Great Britain. He wanted to show Americans how to act like upstanding citizens, and he let everyone know how appalled he was at the low level of class Americans displayed.

In March 2001, his goodwill won over Mr. McMahon™, and Regal™ was handed the title of Commissioner. For months, with his houseboy Tajiri™ as his loyal servant, Commissioner Regal™ won over the fans by being a leader against the Alliance. However, in October 2001, Regal™ decided to turn his back on the company, and he joined the Alliance. Linda McMahon™ decided to immediately fire Regal™ as Commissioner, and, in turn, Shane™ and Stephanie™ crowned Regal™ as the first-ever commissioner of the Alliance. However, after the fall of the Alliance at Survivor Series® 2001, Regal™ did the unthinkable. He kissed Mr. McMahon™'s naked backside on national television to get his job back! Fans still laugh at recalling Regal's™ humiliation at the hands of the company owner. But Regal's™ in-ring success is no laughing matter. The U.K. native is a multi-time champion, and possesses one of the most painful maneuvers in the mat game today—the Regal stretch™.
